Spring ball is runner John's charity target

A CANNOCK man is hoping to raise awareness of a rare disease by hosting a ball.

John Hibbs is a committee member of the West Midlands Lupus Group and has organised several fundraising events since his sister was diagnosed with lupus in 2008. John ran the London Marathon in 2010 and has held charity auctions and functions.

The latest is a Butterfly Ball - a dinner-dance, auction and Michael Buble tribute act on Saturday, March 12 at the Ramada Jarvis Hotel, Penns Lane, Sutton Coldfield.

Auction prizes so far include a day in a limousine, a signed Chelsea FC shirt, beauty vouchers and a signed Liverpool FC football.

John, who will be running the London Marathon for West Midlands Lupus Group once again this year, urged Cannock residents to get involved.

"It should be a great night and ticket sales are going OK," he said.

"The event has been running since 2002 but it hasn't happened in the past two years as we haven't had the people to organise it."

Lupus causes the body's immune system to go into overdrive which in turn starts to attack itself.

It is believed that more than 50,000 people throughout the UK suffer with lupus, of whom 90 per cent are female. There is no cure and patients are likely to remain under medical care with continuing medication.

Tickets for the Butterfly Ball are available now at £45 each or £400 for a table of 10.

For more details about the event and the charity see www.westmidlandslupus.co.uk.

Reprieve hope at council farm

COUNCILLORS in Cannock could backtrack on a proposal considering closing Deavall's Farm after revealing it could cost them £369,628 over three years.

The farm at Hawks Green is used by the Countryside Service, and volunteers carry out conservation work for the council.

Initially, members at Cannock Chase Council thought the move would help it to cut costs. They thought they could save up to £10,000 annually.

But a cabinet report revealed that the costs of cutting the funding for the service - run by volunteers - would mean paying contractors instead.

If the decision to maintain the service gets the go-ahead, the news will be a boost to youngsters in the West Midlands who visit the farm for educational experience as well as adult volunteers seeking to reintegrate into mainstream life.

A decision will be taken by the full council next Wednesday, February 16.

Now Scholars aim to shoot down Stags in Cup glory year

FORMER football league opposition sit in Chasetown's way once more as they look to win the three games that would take them to Wembley.

Another famous victory in the club's remarkable recent cup record, this time away at Blue Square South side Eastleigh, secured Chasetown's place in the quarter finals of the FA Trophy. The draw for the next round on February 26 pitted them against a potential scalp to add to the names of Port Vale, Oldham and Grimsby, namely Blue Square Premier side Mansfield Town, at the Scholars Ground. Win that, and then a twolegged semi-final, and Charlie Blakemore's side would compete at Wembley for the top non-league cup trophy.

Saturday's 3-1 win in Hampshire, achieved with goals from Richard Davies, Danny Smith and Ben Jevons, also pocketed Chasetown a further £7,000 in prize money.

That made the FA Trophy run a lucrative one for the Scholars, who have won £22,000 in prize money alone since Sheffield FC were beaten in the first qualifying round back in October. Since then Mickleover Sports, Workington, Kettering and Grimsby have all fallen to the Evo-Stik Premier Division side.

Chief executive Mike Joiner said it had been a wonderful ride to the quarter finals.

"Every match is a cup final at the moment and we showed so much character to get through," Mr Joiner said.

"To think we've got another former football league club to take on is unprecedented for us and we're looking forward to it."

"We go into all these games, whether it's Cardiff, Port Vale, Grimsby or Mansfield, with the primary aim of not getting murdered. It's a strange philosophy to try and beat someone, but that's honestly what we do - set out to survive and then build."

MOTHER WARNING AS YOBS ROB BOY

Toys and fun on way for boys and girls

Parents and toddlers at Etching Hill Primary School, Rugeley, look forward to the new Tots sessions

A RUGELEY school is hoping for a good turnout when a new Tots class starts later this month.

Following on from the success of their Nursery Rhyme Orchestra, Etching Hill Primary School is welcoming parents and carers with children aged three and under. Tots will be held every Monday afternoon from 1.45pm to 3pm from February 28, offering a chance to relax, meet other parents and carers and play with the children.

Each session finishes with the Nursery Rhyme Orchestra, led by one of the Penk Drive North school's teachers.

Headteacher Marie Smith said: "The sessions are free of charge and are open to existing parents and new families."

A small donation would be welcome for tea and coffee. For more information, parents and carers can call 01889 256112 or just turn up on the day.

A WORRIED Cannock mother has warned youngsters against using an alleyway after her son was terrified and robbed of his phone.

The 12-year-old was confronted by four boys of a similar age who demanded that he hand over his Blackberry Curve.

He duly did, but just a few minutes later half the gang were under arrest after the swift actions of Cannock police, for whom the mother reserved particular praise.

She and her son drove around the area on Tuesday, February 1, looking for the culprits and pointed them out. Two other suspects were arrested later that evening.

The parent, who did not wish for her or her son to be identified, said there was CCTV at the top end of the alleyway between St James' Road and Hatherton Road, near Cannock town centre, but not at the bottom.

"You can't see around the corner by the fence so my son didn't know what he was walking into," she said.

"I'd advise people to be careful when they're walking here as this happened in broad daylight and it's not a built-up area."

The mother said the response from police, especially responding officer PC Emma Smith, was "brilliant".

"Four police cars turned up literally less than two minutes after a man from a nearby house raised the alarm," she added.

"It all happened so quickly and they spent three hours with my son afterwards, being very supported. I can't stress that enough, they were fantastic."

She also appealed that anyone who had recently bought a second-hand Blackberry Curve in or around Cannock, which may have been purchased from a suspicious source, should call the police.

by TIM SPIERS

Insp Pat Shannaghan, Cannock Neighbourhood Policing Unit commander, praised the response of his officers.

"PC Smith was deployed to the scene and dealt with the incident quickly and professionally and used a judgement call. Robbery is a serious offence so we would always respond in the swiftest possible manner."

"The timing of the response is not unusual but what is nice is that the mother has recognised what we've done."

"In general robbery hasn't been a problem in Cannock and statistically we're down on last year and the levels are quite low."

Anyone who witnessed the incident, at 4pm is urged to call Staffordshire Police on 0300 123 4455.

Bike collision woman dies

A WOMAN has died after a collision with a motorbike in Great Wyrley.

The crash happened at 7.30am yesterday (Wednesday) in Stafford Road, outside Lakeside Residential Home.

Carol Cooper, aged 61, of Leacroft, Churchbridge, and the rider were taken to Walsall Manor Hospital, where she died from her injuries.

The motorcyclist, a man believed to be in his late 50s, was treated for minor lower leg injuries and released from the hospital.

Staffordshire Police appealed for anyone who witnessed the incident to contact Sgt 4560 Ant Richards at Cannock on 0300 123 4455, quoting reference 81 of February 9.

Spread the warmth by wearing orange bobble

BRIGHT orange bobbles will be seen bobbing across the Chase in support of Age UK's national awareness day.

'Bobble Day', part of Age UK's national Spread the Warmth Campaign, urges everyone to buy or make a bright orange bobble to wear tomorrow (Friday).

People are also encouraged to don orange outfits and accessories and even host orange-based fundraisers to remember the elderly who die because of the cold. More than 250 older people fall victim to the cold every day during the winter months, and by turning the area orange the fundraiser hopes to bring in donations of warm clothing and coats to the Age UK shops. The charity and its local and national partners are also helping to make winter warmer by providing information, advice and practical services to help vulnerable people keep warm.

Bobbles are available from Age UK's headquarters at the Old Roller Mill, Penkridge, and also at the Age UK shops in Cannock and Chasetown for £1.

All those who take part can upload their scorching snaps on Age UK's 'Where Will You Wear Yours' Bobble Day Gallery, at www.ageuk.org.uk/bobbleday.

To make a donation visit www.ageuk.org.uk/bobbleday or call 0800 169 8787.

Walk event is worth £2,370

A SPONSORED walk organised by the Penkridge Goodies raised £2,370.

The village walk was held in aid of the British Heart Foundation's 'My Heart in Cannock' appeal.

The sum raised will go towards a heart scanner.

A Goodies spokesman said: "Although it was a very windy and wet day a large group of walkers took part." Participating walkers, from individuals to organisations, included the parish council, Town Crier Bevan Craddock, members of various Guiding groups, the Rotary Club, the Arnold family, Penkridge and District Round Table, PACE 2000 and the Ramblers Association.

The spokesman added: "Thank you to everyone who walked or gave sponsorship. The appeal is ongoing as a total of £68,000 is needed with the fund currently being about halfway."

Some of the walkers at the end of the sponsored event, with parish council chairman Councillor Pet Hughes, centre

London hero to address meeting

MORE THAN 30 business delegates turned out for a networking breakfast hosted by the Chase Chamber of Commerce.

The event boasted three guest speakers and took place on Friday February 28, at the Ramada Hotel.

Opening the event, Fred Pritchard, Chase Chamber President, spoke about the current business climate in the local area and the effectiveness of apprentice programmes.

He also talked about the plans for the Lakeside Park Scheme and Avon Plaza Leisure.

Main guest speaker, Sunny Claire from European Enterprise Network (EEN) followed with information and advice to businesses on legislation and innovation.

Allan Bean ended the morning with a presentation about his Tamworth based business, BeanIT, and the importance of backing up data files.

Business representatives were then given the chance to ask questions.

The next Chase Chamber Breakfast will take place on March 25, at the Ramada Hotel, Cannock, with guest speaker Paul Dudge, a hero of the London bombings.

To reserve a place call 08450 710191 or email n.ledger@chase-chamber.com

Birthday specials at church

A CHADSMOOR church will be hosting a series of special fundraisers to celebrate its 120th anniversary.

St Chad's Church, Cannock Road, will hold a bacon roll and coffee morning, on Saturday (February 12), from 10am until 12pm.

The line dance group is hosting a Red Heart Day on Friday February 25 from noon to 1.30pm.

Lunch will be available for £3 and guests are also invited to stay for an afternoon of dancing.

Proceeds will go towards the church renovation fund and the Cannock Hospital scanner appeal.

A soup lunch takes place from 12pm until 2pm, on March 12. All events are held in the church hall.

Chase bike ride will aid diabetes

A BIKE riding event is being held on Chase to raise funds for charity Diabetes UK.

The Big Bike Ride, to boost diabetes research, starts from Birches Valley Visitor Centre on Sunday, April 17.

Cyclists can set off between 10am and 11am on the day and all routes will be clearly marked out. There will be a choice of routes between one-and-a-half and 15 miles, all of which are suitable for all ages and abilities.

There will also be an optional 14-mile route for more experienced cyclists. Cycle hire will be available.

Emma Rowley, fundraiser for Diabetes UK said: "Due to the success of our previous two events we look forward to holding it again and encouraging more people to take part."

"All the funds raised from this event will go to fund Diabetes UK research projects."

"Keeping active is really important in helping people with diabetes successfully manage their condition and helping those of us with a family history of Type 2 diabetes to prevent or delay the onset of the condition."

Family

"The event is suitable for all abilities and will be a great event for all the family," she added.

Diabetes UK has this year teamed up with the Forestry Commission and Giant who are supporting the event.

There is a registration fee of £5 per cyclist and discount for groups of four or more.

Anyone interested in taking part please contact Diabetes UK on 01922 614500 or e-mail midlands@diabetes.org.uk for a registration pack or further details.

National exhibition held in the town again

Photographers' work is in frame

Great Crested Grebes and Smock Sails at Sunrise are among the other photographs on display

A NATIONAL photography exhibition is being held in Cannock for the second year running.

The Bebington Salon of Photography will hold its presentation night and award presentation at Mill Street Methodist Church Hall on Saturday (February 12).

Now in its eighth year, the exhibition is part of the British Photographic Exhibition (BPE) circuit and it open to all residents of the UK.

More than 3,000 entries were received this year and a member of Cannock Photographic Society (CPS), which is hosting the event, picked up a silver medal in one of the four main categories, nature.

Mark Davis' photo, Red Squirrel Drinking, and many other award-winning shots will be on display, including those from the colour, mono and landscape categories.

Press secretary for the Cannock Photographic Society, Pete Hanyasz, said: "Judged by five highly experienced and well known selectors, they have ended up with a stunning exhibition of the very best of British photography."

The images will be on show at the CPS meeting rooms from 7:45pm and admission is £2.50.

Unison storm on jobs rescue

UNISON has criticised the Lib Dem leader of Cannock Chase Council for dismissing the union's proposals for saving jobs.

The country's second largest trade union said that Councillor Neil Stanley invited them to discuss alternative savings suggestions with the cabinet.

Unison's Rob Johnston claimed that, instead of a discussion, Councillor Stanley used the occasion to publicly condemn the union.

"The cabinet meeting was a charade and an ambush to pin the blame for council cuts on to the staff."

"The union was asked to develop initial proposals for cost savings and to present these to the cabinet for a genuine discussion. It became apparent that the meeting was an ambush with Neil Stanley demolishing the items for discussion."

Councillor Stanley claimed he received the "ludicrous" suggestions, which included abolishing street cleaning, just one minute before the meeting.

Plea for opinions on buses

VILLAGERS in South Staffordshire can have a say on a shake-up of public transport.

A new book-in-advance bus may be introduced to serve Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley and other villages. Other proposals include a new number 75 route from Penkridge to Stafford Hospital, and community car schemes may be extended.

Ideas were drawn up by South Staffordshire Rural Transport Partnership, and online polls are in place at www.mypacemysay.co.uk.

Mum's the word in aiding child speech

MOTHERS in Cheslyn Hay are supporting a nationwide campaign to improve the ability of parents and professionals to develop and support children's speech, language and communication.

Mothers who attend Baby Talk sessions at Glenthorpe Children's Centre, in Glenthorpe Drive, are backing a year-long campaign called Hello! The campaign aims to understand children's typical communication development and is backed by the Department for Education and the Department for Health. For details, email enquiries@smalltalktd.co.uk or call 0844 704 5888.

Still time to enter photos, but make it snappy

KEEN photographers are being reminded that they have a chance to put Cannock Chase in the picture.

Residents still have time to enter a competition that could see their winning shot adorn the front page of a council document.

But they have only until next Thursday, February 17, to submit their entries.

As part of a new document providing guidance on developments across the district, Cannock Chase Council is encouraging people to take snapshots of their favourite local places. The winning photograph will feature on the cover of the final documentation.

The authority will be asking local residents and a range of other groups or organisations with an interest in the area such as architects and the county council to become involved in producing the design guidance. Details of the planning policy document, the photography competition and a questionnaire are available at www.cannockchase.gov.uk/planning-policy.

A camera, supplied by Asda, is available for the winning photographic entry to the over-16s, and a separate contest is also being run for under-16s, with a prize for their school.

Returned

Entrants are invited to submit photos of favourite places such as a park, buildings, memorial or viewpoints across the Chase, and explain in no more than 100 words why that subject is important and why it is unique to Cannock Chase district or their local area.

A council spokesman said: "Entries will be used to help the council better understand what is locally important when designing new developments and the suggestions will also be taken into account in preparing the Local List."

Entries will be judged on March 17, with the panel including Chronicle and Asda representatives, Cannock Chase Council marketing officer Sandra Richards, Councillor Danny Davies and a member of the council's planning team.

Photographs can be submitted via email to planningpolicy@cannockchase.gov.uk or by post to Planning Policy, Cannock Chase Council, Civic Centre, PO Box 28, Beecroft Road, Cannock, WS11 1BG.

Attachments should be no larger than 5MB in file size. The council will also accept hard copy photographs, but to have them returned, a stamped SAE must be included. Hard copy photographs must be no larger than A4 size. All submitted photos will be made available on the council's website.

Entrants may submit as many photos as they wish but all entrants must complete a submission form, available to download from the council website or by requesting a hard copy on 01543 464494.

When submitting photographs please also fill out a copy of the Picture That questionnaire. The competition is not open to employees and elected members of Cannock Chase Council, their agents, immediate families, or anyone professionally connected with the promotion.

Charity hero Ethel wins award at 90

A FUNDRAISER aged 90 has received a lifetime achievement award at a ceremony to honour unsung heroes.

Ethel Powell MBE, who mortgaged her home to pay for lifts at Cannock Chase Hospital, was among more than 50 volunteers from Staffordshire to be honoured.

The Volunteer Staffordshire Awards at The Chase Golf Club were organised by Staffordshire County Council and Volunteer Centres Staffordshire after receiving 300 nominations from the public.

Mrs Powell, of Cannock, a founder member of the Cannock Chase Hospital League of Friends, retired from the group last year after helping to raise £1.5 million during 35 years' service.

Accepting the award on her behalf, hospital director Julie Hendry said: "Ethel is a real inspiration."

The judges' special award went to volunteer Carrie-Ann Freeman, aged 19, who spearheaded a campaign to raise awareness of the medical condition microcephaly, which has affected her younger brother Robin.

Last year Carrie-Ann, of Wat Tyler Close, Rugeley, helped to organise the first Microcephaly Convention in the UK.

Volunteer co-ordinator of the Year was 45-year-old Jane Reynolds, from Cannock, who oversees youth action teams in the Cannock Chase and South Staffordshire districts.

Stafford churchwarden Lilian Owens, 82, was given the community good neighbour award for more than 40 years' service on St Andrew's Church committee. Staffordshire Volunteer of the Year went to 50-year-old Jane Eldridge, of Stafford, for her work with Addiction Dependency Solutions Staffordshire.

Digger manufacturer JCB was given the award for business contribution to volunteering after employees raised millions of pounds for the NSPCC.

Safer ways for children

PUPILS in Hednesford have spent a week learning about road safety in sessions organised by Staffordshire County Council.

Year 7 and Year 8 at Kingsmead Technology College, in King's Avenue, were taught about avoiding dangerous actions, distractions and risk taking by Caroline Bevan, the county council's road safety officer.

Boss's female fitness course

A FITNESS fanatic is setting up an army style boot camp at her home to help women shed the pounds.

Sue Arnold, ex-president of Cannock Chamber of Commerce, is urging women to ditch fad diets and take part in a series of three-day, military-style, weekend courses, starting from Thursday, March 17.

Women of all ages, shapes and sizes can train under the stern gaze of elite Royal Marine commando instructors.

Businesswoman Sue said: "Having spent 25 years at director level, it was always important to me to be physically fit and mentally alert."

"I like to look good because it helps with my self-esteem while giving me additional confidence, something we ladies always seek."

For information about the £399 courses at Sue's Grade II-listed home at Harlorton, five miles north of Tamworth, call 018238 3625 or 07990 553938 after 5pm, or log on to www.ladiesbootcamp.co.uk.

Hair salon and spa par for course at golf club

by SARAH HAZELWOOD

s.hazelwood@expressandstar.co.uk

AN ENTREPRENEURIAL family has created 20 jobs in Cannock after investing £1 million in a new health and beauty complex.

Chris and Lesley Simmons are to open a new health club and spa at Chase Golf Club, in Pottal Pool Road, in April after purchasing the premises, in July 2009.

With the official opening set to commence in April, local residents and representatives are invited to a special preview weekend, on Friday February 19 and Saturday February 20, from 9am until 4pm.

Lesley Simmons, who has various other business interests in the area, said: "We bought the club with the vision of making it the premier club in the area."

"The family's investment in the project has created more than 20 jobs, including fitness instructors, beauty therapists and reception staff."

"It has also created a lot of work for contractors in the area. For us to be able to create jobs and work for people in the local area in this current financial climate is really pleasing."

"We have employed some fantastic people who are passionate about what they do and want to be part of the exciting future here at The Chase."

In addition to the club's current facilities the new development will include a hi-tech gym, training area, two spacious studios, a sauna, aroma crystal steam room, ice therapy, tranquillity room, six luxurious treatment rooms, physiotherapy and sports injury clinic, personal training and café bar and free parking.

The Chase Golf Club is also catering for hair and beauty salon Xposure, which moved on to the site in January 2011 after running their business for 10 years in Penkridge.

Brian Davies, general manager of The Chase Golf Club, said: "We are really looking forward to opening this family orientated facility."

"We have had such a fantastic response already and we are eager to sign people up and make them apart of this huge and unique development."

For more information, visit www.thechasegolf.co.uk or call 01785 712888, extension 224.

Fred Pritchard with Nikki Cooper, the area representative for Aston Martin

Prestige car club gives a lift to town

A CANNOCK businessman brought a touch of glitz and glamour to the town when he hosted members of the Aston Martin Owners' Club.

The event at the Ramada Hotel, Orbital Plaza, was organised by Aston Martin enthusiast Fred Pritchard, chairman of Pritchard Group PLC. His intention was to promote Cannock Chase as an area in which to do business and enjoy tourism with the Chase on peoples' doorstep.

During the weekend a party was held on Saturday night before around 80 Aston Martin owners attended a Sunday morning viewing of the Pritchard collection of Aston Martin vehicles.

A spokesman for Pritchard Group said: "They were shown as a symbol of aspiration and also not everything happens in London, it also happens in Cannock."

"Having said their farewells after a lunch time get-together, they all went on their way to various parts of the county and the country with good memories of Cannock Chase and what it has to offer – a promotion well worthwhile."

Free bus travel boost for pensioners from council

PENSIONERS in Cannock will get free all-day bus travel from April 1 to bring them in line with other parts of the county. Staffordshire County Council is also introducing a £1 a trip fare to give under-20s the right to travel anywhere within the county from June.

The council cabinet has been recommended to approve the plans next Wednesday.

The authority is also to continue subsidising socially necessary bus routes at the rate of £3.5million a year. Concession-ary schemes for elderly and disabled people, previously run by district and borough councils, will be controlled by the county. Instead of eight schemes there will be a cheaper to run single 24/7 scheme.

Council leader Councillor Philip Atkins said it was good news for elderly and young people. "We have managed to negotiate a better deal with the bus companies which is enabling us to offer the 24/7 scheme in Cannock," he said. People under 20 will be able to register for the new Your Staffordshire Card in April and May. The £1 for a one-way trip will also apply at weekends and school and college holidays.

The card will be expanded to offer other benefits and discounts. Disabled people will be able to have a "buddy" accompany them free of charge.

Councillor Atkins said it made Staffordshire the national leader on discretionary travel allowances. Over-65s can call 0300 1118000 for their new passes.

Author to give talk at library

A STAFFORDSHIRE-born author will be dropping in on Penkridge Library next week.

Anne-Marie Vukelic, who was born in Codsall, in 1967, will be at the library, in Bell Brook, on Tuesday from 7pm.

In the 1980s she moved to Salzburg, Austria, but has now returned to her birthplace. Anne-Marie is a lifelong enthusiast of both Victorian history and psychology.

Her debut novel Far Above Rubies is all about the life of Catherine Dickens, the wife of the most famous novelists of the Victorian era, Charles Dickens.

Set against the backdrop of 19th Century London, Catherine recounts her own story of her marriage to a restless, mercurial husband.

County Councillor Veronica Downes, said: "It's wonderful that Penkridge Library will be hosting this event, I'm especially pleased to see a local born author introducing her new book to the local community."

Tickets for this event cost £3.50 (£2.50 library members/concessions).

Places are limited so booking is advisable. For more information contact Penkridge Library on (01785) 712916.

Liam appeal already hits £70,000 to help research

A FUNDRAISING drive in memory of popular Cannock youngster Liam Keeling has topped the £70,000 mark.

The figure was reached after a charity sports evening raised £7,000 at Walsall Football Club, just 15 months after his devastating death from Meningitis B.

Thirteen-year-old Liam, from Cheslyn Hay, who died in October 2009, was a year-eight pupil at Cardinal Griffin High School. He was also a talented footballer with Wyley Juniors, a team co-managed by his dad Andy.

The sports event welcomed former Wolves player Steve Daley and comedian Josh Daniels, before hosting a popular auction of sporting memorabilia. Andy said his family had been overwhelmed by everyone's commitment.

"It is amazing that people's support for the cause is still so strong," he said. "The memorial committee members work so hard and every event has been a brilliant tribute to Liam."

"It's good to feel that we're doing something good to help other people in the future. To find a vaccine to protect against meningitis would be a wonderful achievement."

The Liam Keeling Memorial Fund is continuing to contribute to Meningitis UK. A host of fundraising events have been organised, including a gig by the Black Country Boys at Walsall Football Club on April 15.

Committee members are also asking people to Leap for Liam on September 11, when a 160ft bungee jump is being set up at the West Midlands Water Ski Centre.

All the money raised will go towards Meningitis UK's Search 4 a Vaccine Campaign, which aims to raise £7million to fund research into developing a vaccine against Meningitis B.

Steve Dayman, who founded Meningitis UK after his son died from the disease, said: "To raise £70,000 in a relatively short amount of time is fantastic and it's been heartening to see how much everyone's rallied round in memory of Liam."

For details, on forthcoming events, call coordinator Tim Rooney, on 07738 837590.

People can contact Pe Lisa Richardson at Chasetown police station by calling 0300 123 44 55 and quoting serial reference number 908/5 or, call Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Plea for help over assault

POLICE are appealing for witnesses after a man was assaulted in Chasetown, and taken to hospital.

A 28-year-old was taken to hospital where he needed stitches for head injuries after the assault in at around 8pm on Saturday (February 5).

The victim, who lives in Chasetown, was found in High Street, opposite The Junction pub.

He was allowed home from hospital after receiving the stitches. Officers investigating the incident are appealing for anyone who was in or around the High Street area, or in The Junction or the nearby Chasetown Leisure bar, and has information, to contact them.

People can contact Pe Lisa Richardson at Chasetown police station by calling 0300 123 44 55 and quoting serial reference number 908/5 or, call Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Hotel lounge offers best views

The Sky Lounge Bar at the top of Ramada Hotel, Bridgton, is now open to the public to enjoy the views. Guest services manager May Stevenson-Wilkes is seen in the Sky Lounge Bar

A NEW bar with a view has 360 degree views, opened last Tuesday (February 1).

Fred Pritchard, chairman of Pritchard Group plc, said it was a further step in improving facilities at the hotel.

"This gives greater facilities to cater for the general public's needs and those of the travelling population of businessmen and tourists,"

The lounge and bar, which offers he said. The Sky Room is also available for hire for functions.

It will operate as a bar between Monday and Friday and as a function room for weddings and other events at the weekends.

Dining facilities are now all contained within the hotel with the Sky Room providing light meals.

'Future' staff finish off stint

THE Chase Chamber of Commerce has said goodbye to eight Future Jobs Fund workers it took on in August.

They took on various roles within the chamber, including events management, marketing and public relations as well as reception and general administration duties.

The scheme was funded by the Government, giving people who were unemployed for more than six months the chance to get back into the workplace.

Asset

Chris Plant, events and marketing manager, said: "The chamber has found all the Future Jobs Fund employees to be a great asset to the team, making the workplace a more enjoyable and exciting place to work."

"It has been great to see them all grow as people, improve their abilities and work experience. The staff are all sad to see them go and we wish them all the best in their future careers."

The chamber has had a 50 per cent success rate with four moving on to new jobs.

Fight over forest sale

COUNCILLOR Frank Allan was re-elected chairman of the Chasmoor & Broomhill Labour Party at its annual meeting on February 2.

Members aired their worries about the future of Cannock Chase under government proposals to sell off our forests. The branch agreed to campaign, along with other groups, to save the Chase for the community.

Coffee time in aid of charity

A CONSERVATION charity has lined up a series of activities for the rest of the month at its Wolsley Bridge headquarters.

Staffordshire Wildlife Trust kicks off its February line-up with a coffee morning tomorrow (Friday) from 10am-12noon. Stalls will have for sale cupcakes, jams and second-hand books, while visitors can also browse around the centre's gift shop selling toys, books, home wares, calendars, clothing, and cards.

Admission to the coffee morning is £1 and includes a hot or cold drink. All proceeds will go towards the Trust's conservation and educational projects.

Membership officer Sarah Parker said: "Supporting our coffee morning is one way you can help local wildlife and conservation across the county."

"You could take a walk around the grounds and then warm up and enjoy a cake in the visitor centre."

During the half-term holidays the Trust is hosting activity sessions for youngsters.

Their Wildplay sessions include fire-lighting, scavenger hunts, bird-watching, making bird feeders and natural arts and crafts.

Two sessions for eight to 13-year-olds are being held on Monday 21 and Tuesday 22 February from 10am-3pm, with admission costing £10 per child for the two days.

Activities for four to seven-year-olds and their carers will take place on Wednesday 23 from 2-4pm, costing £2.50 per child.

Places must be booked and early booking is recommended as places are limited.

To book, call the Trust on 01889 880100. For more information on the coffee morning call Sarah Parker on 01889 880109.

Group has open night

TRAMS and Transport is the subject of a talk at a Great Wyrley Local History Society open night tonight (Thursday).

Historian Dr Paul Collins is giving the talk at Harrison's Sports and Social Club, Wharwell Lane, Great Wyrley from 8pm. Admission is free, with a buffet served.

Bogus caller alert

THE South Staffordshire Community Safety Partnership is urging residents to be on their guard after a bogus caller targeted a Great Wyrley home.

The caller claimed to be from 'Head of British Councils in London' and tried to get the pensioner from Broadmeadow Lane to part with her bank details, as part of a council tax refund. The woman refused to give her details and alerted the council.

Maggie Quinn, Community Safety Manager at South Staffordshire

Council, said: "We're advising everyone to be on their guard and not to give out bank or card details to anyone over the phone, internet or to cold callers."

"If you are contacted by someone who says they're from the council and you're suspicious, call us straightaway on 01902 696000."

"If in any doubt, check with the organisation they allegedly represent, by calling it directly, from a number from the phone directory. Don't call a number if it's provided by the caller."

Ancient art of tai chi

OLDER people in Penkridge are being invited to sign up for classes to relax the mind and body.

Tai chi forms part of Penkridge Leisure Centre's Active Generation programme aimed at older people.

Led by David Jackson, a fully qualified senior instructor of the Iyoshin schools of martial arts, the classes run at the Cannock Road centre every Monday from 9-10am and are suitable for all abilities.

Tai chi combines deep breathing with relaxation and postures that flow from one to another through slow movements, which gently tone and strengthen muscles to improve posture, balance and flexibility.

It is also said to reduce pain and falls as well as improve memory, concentration and digestion, as well as having a positive benefit on the heart and psychological problems.

The cost is £3.90 for non-members and is free for leisure centre members. Call 01785 714 152.

Leader hits out at reply from unions

THE leader of Cannock Chase Council says jobs which are facing the axe at the authority could have been saved had employees supported the Cabinet's plans to save money.

Councillor Neil Stanley and the ruling Lib Dem Cabinet had hoped to freeze pay rises or cut staff salaries to save jobs to plug a hole in budget funding. However, the council received little support for the steps from trade unions GMB, Ucat and Unison.

The council needs to cut a total of £960,000 from its budget and staff are facing voluntary redundancies or reduced working hours.

The 665 employees - 355 of them full time - may also be offered the chance to buy extra annual leave.

Councillor Stanley told a Cabinet meeting on Thursday (February 3) he was disappointed with the response to the council's proposals.

He said: "I believe we could have avoided redundancies but that's not going to be the case."

Unison had suggested the council could potentially save £33,600 over three-years by scrapping an £800 computer allowance for newly elected council members.

Other suggestions included reducing councillors' internet access, cutting subsidies to maintain football pitches, an end to council-funded Christmas lights, and a reduction in street sweeping, which would alone save £112,000.

But Councillor Tony Williams said: "Some of Unison's proposals leave me wondering why we are here - we are here to serve the public."

Officers had warned the Cabinet that withholding increments for 12 months for 214 staff, saving £150,000, and cutting salaries would risk staff going to tribunals or going on strike.

More than 100 staff have expressed an interest in taking voluntary redundancy or a reduction in working hours.

Organist chipping in with town gig

EFFERVESCENT organist Elizabeth Harrison will be the guest player at the Burntwood Music For All Group tonight (Thursday).

A native of Chipping, in Lancashire's Ribbles Valley, Liz is something of a celebrity within the popular organ and keyboard concert world - not just for her virtuosic skills at the keyboard.

Liz is a fully qualified and licensed HGV driver as well as holding a PSV licence.

She also works as a fully qualified designer and landscape gardener.

Liz still tours the UK performing keyboard concerts and made her debut at Burntwood back in 2008.

Playing the state of the art Yamaha EL-900 multi-keyboard, her programme includes traditional and nostalgic items from the Blackpool Tower and Big Band repertoire.

Liz will be appearing at the Memorial Institute Hall, Rugeley Road, Burntwood from 7.30pm.

Tickets are £5 and are available on the door. More details are available from CMP Productions on 01530 274270.

Teenager caused unnecessary suffering to animal Crossbow youth, 16, guilty of hitting cow

A TEENAGER from Cannock who shot a cow through the head with a crossbow bolt faces a legal bill and could be banned from keeping animals.

The 16-year-old, who cannot be named for legal reasons, was found guilty at Cannock magistrates court of causing unnecessary suffering to the cow, named Blackberry.

A metal bolt was found lodged through the right-side of the animal's face. Roger Price, prosecuting on behalf of the RSPCA, said a second bolt, made of plastic, was found in the same field.

The teenager, who was traced by police through DNA discovered on the bolts, had denied the charge. He claimed he had not used the crossbow since buying it at a car boot sale 18 months earlier.

The boy admitted being alone in the field at Deavalls Farm, in Hawks Green Lane, Cannock, after climbing over the entrance gate and that he had lit a fire before firing the crossbow for target practice, said Neil Gerrity, defending.

But Mr Gerrity claimed the boy had aimed at trees and did not know there were cows in the field.

The injured cow, which had to be sedated before the bolt could be removed last February, was a Dexter, one of the smallest European cattle breeds about half the size of a traditional Hereford and one-third the size of a Friesian.

Mr Gerrity argued that as the cows were a miniature variety, and that there were only three of them in the field, they were not easy to spot, particularly in the dark. However Mr Price said that a sign on the front of the gate warning that cattle were in the field had been found in the fire lit by the youth.

Deadline to apply for cash

COMMUNITY groups in Burntwood have until February 28 to apply for grants of up to £200.

Burntwood Community Chest is making grants available to fund community activities, equipment, training or volunteering opportunities.

Applications must be for project in the wards of Chasetown, Chase Terrace, Burntwood and Boney Hay.

Forms are available at www.lichfieldcc.gov.uk/burntwoodcommunitychest or the Old Mining College Centre in Chasetown.

Credible

Speaking at the end of a one-and-a-half day trial, chairman of the bench Robert Chumley-Roberts told the youth: "It is not believable that you had had the gun for 18 months and had not used it."

"Nor is it credible that it was pure coincidence that you found yourself in that field after passing other fields with trees where you could have done target practice."

"Neither is it believable that you would not have seen the warning sign on the gate, the same sign that was later found in the fire."

The teenager was bailed until February 23 for pre-sentence reports to be prepared.

Old clock Hoggs the limelight

CLOCKMAKER Philip Hogg has time to admire this 150-year-old American alarm clock inherited from his father Albert.

Mr Hogg senior used it to wake up for his 6am start as a Birmingham diecaster.

Mr Hogg, aged 65, had his own clock shop in Burntwood. The timepiece, made between 1850 and 1860, is a very early example of an alarm clock, he says.

He estimates that today the family heirloom is valued at around £75 to £85.

"These American clocks were mass-produced and flooded the market back in Victorian times," he said. The grandfather-of-two, of Union Street, Chasetown, says he still occasionally uses it as an alarm - but not often.

"The ring sounds like a fire alarm going off - and you can't switch it off. It's a case of waiting a couple of minutes for it to end," he said.

Yoga class supports Kenyan project

The class which runs at Hayes Green Community Centre, in Heath Hayes on Monday evenings, is led by Sue Tupling.

Last month, Sue ran special Yoga classes and sold copies of her own DVDs to raise £295 for the Kenya Kitchen project.

Supported by the Satyananda Yoga Centre (SYC), in Birmingham, the project involves the renovation of a vast warehouse into a dining hall and kitchen to help feed 1,500 impoverished children.

Sue said: "In a difficult economic climate it is easy to forget that there are many children in other parts of the world that still do not have enough food to eat.

"We wanted to do something to help by supporting this project that will see every pound donated benefiting children who have been subjected to absolute poverty."

Local residents who have regularly attend the Hayes Green class, were happy to see their £5.50 admission fee go towards supporting other communities, and also gave additional donations towards the cause.

The kind-hearted teacher, who then matched the sum raised with a donation from her own company,

Communications, added: "The yoga class has greatly benefited the Cannock community and we are passionate about offering support and help to wider communities too."

"In addition we plan to run more workshops and special classes to donate to several worthy causes closer to home, in Staffordshire, in the coming months."

For more information about the yoga classes and the Kenya Kitchen project or to make a donation, visit Sue's yoga website at www.myoga.org.uk/ or the SYC at www.sycbirmingham.com/rikhika 2011.htm

Titanic's links to auction

A SET of four egg cups marked for the Titanic's White Star Line is set to come under the auctioneer's hammer in Penkridge.

Auctioneers Cuttlestones fine art sale on March will feature the egg cups from a seller in Southampton.

The auctioneers say the reason they chose Cuttlestones rather than a local auction house is down to Cuttlestones' previous success with White Star Line items, including a set of six cups that fetched just under £1,000 last March.

The egg cups are a far rarer – and potentially more valuable. One of the egg cups carries a date stamp for 1912, the year the Titanic sank.

Year of Rabbit for nursery tots

A CHINESE meal was served up for children and parents at a Cannock nursery.

Little Friends Day Nursery, in Gorton Road, spent last week organising events leading up to Chinese New Year.

The week culminated in a Chinese lunch for 17 children along with parents to sample all kinds of Chinese food.

Nursery manager Susan Henley organised the activities to mark the start of the Year of the Rabbit. Youngsters were taught about Chinese culture and learned how to make fans, lanterns and dragon masks.

Partnership

Little Friends runs from Monday to Friday between 7.30am and 6.30pm and caters for children up to school age.

The nursery, which has been running for nearly six years, currently has spaces for new children each day. Parents who would like to find out more can contact Little Friends on 01543 577150.

Little Friends have been commended by Ofsted for a good partnership with parents. It holds three parents evenings a year when each child's development can be discussed in depth. More information is also available from the www.mylittlefriends.co.uk website.

Council 'kept in dark' over bus service axe

A CANNOCK Chase councillor says he is disgusted that Arriva did not notify the authority about a reduction in bus routes.

Councillor Tony Williams, who represents Hagley, said Arriva failed to give the district council any warning that vital services would be reduced or cut.

He told a cabinet meeting that council members only found out about the timetable changes by visiting the bus company's website.

Councillor Williams said: "The fact that Arriva can just stick that up on their website and not even tell us does not look good at all."

He has been inundated with residents raising concerns about how they will get from A to B.

"Some routes have gone from every half hour to zero, it's an absolute nonsense. There's been no consultation," he added.

From Saturday, February 26, the 33 service from Rugeley to Walsall is being rerouted and will miss out parts of Hednesford and Cannock.

Evening

The 61 Lichfield to Walsall bus is being cut, and the 32 route between Rugeley and Walsall is also being revised and will no longer serve Aldridge. Some early morning and early evening journeys have been withdrawn on the 25 and 26 buses which serve Cannock, Hednesford and Pye Green, following decline in patronage. The 33A, which travels between Cannock and Lichfield, will also be withdrawn between Monday to Saturday.

Arriva Midlands insists it has been forced to axe services due to government cutbacks – with a 20 per cent reduction in a concessionary fare reinforcement grant.

Keith Myatt, for Arriva, said: "We talked to Staffordshire County Council being the local transport co-ordinators who deal with subsidies."

Mr Myatt said the firm's bosses had met with the county council on several occasions discussing the need to make changes to services across Staffordshire.

The county council is looking to continue some withdrawn services.

Killer Morris told he will die behind bars

CANNOCK Chase child killer Raymond Morris will die behind bars after losing a fight to clear his name, a court has ruled.

Mr Justice Simon, sitting at London's Royal Courts of Justice on Monday (February 7), rejected the murderer's attempt at an appeal. Morris, now aged 81 and a serving prisoner of HMP Wymott in Preston, has been in jail for 42 years for the murder of seven-year-old Walsall schoolgirl Christine Darby in 1967.

The former engineer from Green Lane, Walsall, is also the prime suspect in the killings of schoolgirls Margaret Reynolds of Aston and Diane Tift from Bloxwich.

The bodies of all three girls were found on Cannock Chase in crimes that shocked the nation.

Morris' bid for an appeal was rejected by the Criminal Cases Review Commission back in June and his legal team launched a judicial review of that decision.

Monday's hearing was the result of the judicial review – and his claim was dismissed by the judge.

In the initial judicial review hearing back in December, Mr John McGuinness QC, prosecuting, said Morris's case was "bound to fail".

Murder

Morris, a divorced father-of-two, has maintained his innocence over the decades.

The killer was fighting to get his case back to the Court of Appeal on the grounds that there was evidence of alleged police misconduct in respect of his 1969 murder conviction.

Former Det Ch Supt Pat Molloy, one of three leading officers on the case, always maintained he had no doubt Morris was guilty.

He described him as "cold, cruel, lustful and just plain wicked". The cases of five-year-old Diane and six-year-old Margaret remain on file to this day.

Specialists shortlisted

TWO horse riding equipment specialists have been nominated for five national awards.

Black Country Saddles, of Bridgtown, and Robinson's Country Leisure superstore, of Wyrley Brook Retail Park, have been nominated for the British Equestrian Trade Association business awards.

Black Country Saddles could scoop four awards, while Robinson's has been shortlisted for the retailer of the year in the large tack shop category.

Water way to raise awareness

YOUNGSTERS at a Burntwood school worked with a theatre group to produce a dripping drama.

The water-themed workshop took place at Chase Terrace Technology College, in Bridge Cross Road.

The pupils used the power of performance to emphasise the benefits of having showers rather than baths and putting a plug in the sink to preserve water. With the help of Konflux Theatre a group of 21 Year 10 performing arts students put on their performance to an assembly of younger pupils.

In the afternoon the school's own 3s Company theatre group was joined by Year 12 students to put on their interpretation of highlighting water conservation.

This included using hands and arms as shower heads.

The initiative was funded by Severn Trent Water to raise awareness of the issue.

Rebecca Freeman, of Konflux, said the aim was to ensure maximum student participation and engagement.

Double standards

AS A resident who for the last two years has been giving Hednesford Police Station (until it was closed) times, dates, photos and full descriptions of drug deals in the area I live, also e-mailing our area Constable with the same since May 2010, I might just as well not bother. It is a complete waste of time.

Yet poor 'Liam' has brought dispute to a town that is second only to Kabul for drugs. Why do you seek him out at the same time as the Council is housing drug dealers and takers in every flat that becomes available in Chads Moor.

Never before have we had a Council and a Leader with such double standards.

Remarks show little interest or respect

I HAVE to say I was not impressed by Councillor Neil Roberts' quoted response to the need to remedy problems with some block paving in Market Street: 'Paving Holes are Fit for Crazy Golf' (Lichfield & Burntwood Chronicle, January 27).

Whichever party a councillor belongs to and whether they are serving at local, district or county levels, Council Tax payers are entitled to expect dynamism, innovative vision and energetic commitment from their representatives.

Councillor Roberts' remarks appeared to show little interest in the issue, respect for the councillor raising it or a sense of urgency to resolve it.

With the local elections approaching I hope Councillor Roberts will reflect on his approach and adopt a more positive and open outlook.

Petition online against electoral changes

RE: Proposed county council electoral changes.

You may be aware that under county council proposals, Hednesford is to be broken, for electoral purposes into three into three areas.

One of the electoral new areas would mean that some residents living in Broadhurst Green, Hednesford, off Bradbury Lane Hed-nesford and Brindley Heath would vote with the residents of Brereton and Stile Cop, Rugeley. Therefore the vast majority of voters in the new area would live in Rugeley.

I do not believe this is good local government, where is the common sense in this?

Population tables support the county council's proposals. But an ancient forest separates the two communities and not even those well-presented tables can chop down the distance between the two communities and make them local.

From the few conversations I have had with residents neither can they. Brereton is not local to them. Hednesford is their town.

Hednesford is a proud town and should not be cut up for political convenience and to balance numbers. The boundary commissions needs to know residents' views and a petition has been placed on Cannock Chase Council's website. This is not a council petition.

I am using a facility that allows anyone who lives, works or is a student in Cannock Chase District to submit (or sign) an e-petition. If you are opposed to the formation of a new county council division by merging part of Hednesford with Brereton, Rugeley please add your name.

Log on to the council's website, scroll down the menu on the left hand side until you come to e-petitions and then follow the instructions. Or, call 01543 422346 or email WendyYates@cannockchasedc.gov.uk

The petitions will be forwarded to the Local boundary commission for England

Preachy ramblings too pompous to digest

AIDAN Burley has only been our local MP for around eight months, yet he has certainly wasted no time in firmly positioning himself on the unsympathetic and intolerant 'right' of the Tory Party.

Endless efforts to verbally ingratiate himself with the Tory-led regime in the Commons, and via the local media have undoubtedly assisted him to place a first, firm step on the ministerial ladder, given his breakneck speed promotion to Transport Ministry Parliamentary Private Secretary.

But sadly, for many of us, his preachy ramblings are just that bit too pompous and, frankly, naive to digest.

He constantly takes it upon himself to 'speak up' for the 'alarm clock electorate'. The clear insinuation is that unless you are what he regards as economically active, our local MP really doesn't value you very highly and isn't particularly interested in you.

So, woe betide you if you dare to have the misfortune of being unemployed, doubtless through no fault of your own... or, even worse, if you are disabled and genuinely unable to join this wondrous and mystical 'alarm clock' brigade.

It's tough cheese for you if you are a pensioner on a basic pension credit, struggling to pay for everyday goods, thanks in no small part to the Tory Party's love affair with VAT increases.

But what really bugs me about our Aidan is his sheer hypocrisy and utter nerve, when it comes to our district. He has now begun to bang on about how Labour 'failed' in this part of the country to invest properly.

I suggest our local MP cast his mind back. The reason that Cannock and surrounding towns and villages are struggling is mostly historical. Historical in the sense that, whilst he was growing up in comfortable Warwickshire suburbia, back in the 80s, our close-knit communities and proud mining heritage was being ripped to shreds by his beloved Maggie Thatcher, and then John Major, as 18 years of ruthless and spiteful Tory government brought us to our knees, around here.

Labour achieved a lot in the subsequent 13 years. But we inherited a country whose public services were starved of cash, and Midlands and northern manufacturing communities that had been decimated and deeply socially scarred.

Yes, Labour did need to spend a lot of money on bringing this country's vital NHS and other services out of the ill-funded Dickensian era of the 80s and early 90s. Despite ignorant Tory rhetoric to the contrary, Labour did not waste money left, right and centre.

Labour did what was needed. And even our efforts over 13 years often only scratched the surface, such was the depth of damage that 18 years of neo-Toryism had inflicted on Britain.

So before Mr. Burley mouths off again, perhaps he would take the time to get a few more of his facts straight?

Solution to store's cat food decision

RE: Cat food collection at the Morrisons store, Cannock

In respect to the front page story in The Chronicle (February 3) concerning the cat food collection at the Morrisons store Cannock, I feel a more amicable solution could be found.

Instead of stopping one of the cats charities, who have had the benefit of a tin collection every week for eight years thanks to the Morrisons store at Cannock, could the three charities concerned come to some arrangement such as rotating the collection?

For example, two charities for one month then two the following month. I feel this would be beneficial to all parties even Morrisons, to a lesser extent, in that they still make profit since all the animal food is purchased in the shop.

The offer of a bag-fill for the removed charity is of scant consolation to a year's tin collection loss.

Movie student to start filming for new feature

A FILM student from Cannock is to start filming his first feature in and around his home town.

James Sieradzki has been scouting for film locations around the Cannock area for his movie 'Laces'.

James, aged 21, of Sherbrook Road, who is in the third year of a film production technology course at Staffordshire University, said filming would get under way on March 1.

He is now appealing for help with funding for the project and in finding accommodation for actors locally.

Laces is the story of an Australian traveller who is haunted by what he believes may be ghosts when he starts working at a rundown hotel.

James has also written the 80-minute movie, which features a main cast of three, and said he was working on a very tight budget.

To get involved, contact him by e-mail to jsieradzki@hotmail.com.

Last year James had his short film Blind Luck shortlisted in the Virgin Media Shorts awards, which celebrate the best up-and-coming British film talent.

He produced and shot his film on a £50 budget.

Jobs blow as car firm opts out of town move

JOB hopes have been dashed after a planned new car parts centre in Cannock was relocated.

Euro Car Parts, which has more than 85 sales branches in the UK, had been planning to open a new centre in the town since late last year. The move would have led to 50 jobs.

Even last month the company was believed to be considering two possible sites in the town to base its new centre.

However spokesman Donna West has now confirmed the company's board of directors had instead opted to open a new centre in Droitwich Spa, Worcestershire.

She said: "We are a very fast-moving business. Sometimes there is movement of locations."

"We can get as far as putting up signage and then there is a problem. The properties we are looking for are few and far between."

She added that sales centres usually provided about 30 jobs each initially but that this figure often rose to 50 within 12 months due to further recruitment.

But she claimed the firm had not ruled out developing a site in the town in the near future. "It could be reconsidered next year," she said.

Euro Car Parts is currently expanding its sales centres across the UK with plans to open 12 new bases in Aberdeen, Basingstoke, Bedford, Huddersfield, Doncaster, Droitwich, Kings Lynn, Oxford, Rochester, Sheffield South, Solihull and York.

The company already has three centres in the West Midlands and South Staffordshire including Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and a national distribution centre in Tamworth.

The spokesman said the firm, which employs more than 3,200 people nationally, was still actively recruiting for a wide number of branches.

Plans for the proposed Cannock centre were first announced in December.

Diamond class trip a real gem

Parrys passengers have always been able to travel in style. Now the Cheslyn Hay-based coach operator has launched its jewel in the crown, Diamond Class travel.

The 'Diamond' concept was introduced by Parrys International some years ago, but, says boss Dave Parry, the company has now gone even further to guarantee its passengers enjoy their travel experience.

"We think it will be of benefit to all our customers and ensure that extra comfort," he said. He added the Diamond Class series offered something 'really unique to the public and the coaching industry'.

To launch Diamond Class, a special coach has been introduced and its 'maiden voyage' was down to London. The Diamond Class launch means many tours that Parrys were previously able to operate commercially have now been made available, including superior hotels and new destinations both at home and abroad.

Destinations for 2011 include York, Paris, Dublin, the Dutch bulbfields, Cotswolds and Blenheim, Tuscany, Austria, Spain and Gibraltar and Italy, as well as Dubrovnik, Royal Windsor and London's Hilton Waldorf.

It was to the latter that the Diamond Class coach made its first trip, with guests enjoying a day at the theatre to see Jersey Boys, the story of Frankie Valli and the Four Seasons at the Prince Edward Theatre, followed by an overnight stay at the historic hotel in Aldwych.

The 298-room Waldorf Hotel dates back to 1908 and its former Palm Court dining area was the main inspiration for the Titanic's dining room in the film A Night to Remember.

Luxury

Breakfast the following morning was followed by leisure time in London, with Covent Garden just a five-minute stroll away, before heading back on the luxury coach. It's a perfect mix, first-class travel, a hit show and free time to enjoy the sights and sounds of the capital.

On long-haul journeys, just 34 luxury seats are available. Each seat features aircraft-type tables and 'in-flight' entertainment, where travellers can choose from movies, comedy programmes and music to while away the time, complete with complimentary headsets.

A hot and cold drinks service is available from the kitchen facility, while a lounge area, seating up to six people, is on offer sporting leather seats, a table and wide-screen entertainment. These seats are bookable on short UK trips, but kept free on longer tours. And Parrys believes this is a first - the coach has separate ladies and gents toilets.

● For details of Parrys tours, log on to www.parrys-international.co.uk or call the depot, in Landywood Green, Cheslyn Hay on 01922 414576.

SHOW REVIEW

Jersey Boys at the Prince Edward Theatre is proving very popular

Oh, What A Night or in this case afternoon! Even though it was the matinee Jersey Boys performance the atmosphere generated by the story of the Four Seasons was as good as any evening show.

It begins with founder Tommy DeVito explaining about the group's Italian-American background. How he and Nick Massi were in and out of jail but all the time he was looking to build a top band.

In one of his spells on the outside, he noticed Frankie Castelluccio, who was some years younger but had a voice to die for. Tommy talked Frankie into joining what was then the Four Lovers. They later changed their name to the Four Seasons and Frankie's surname to Valli.

The final, and arguably most important piece in the jigsaw, wasn't in place until Frankie pushed for Bob Gaudio to become the fourth member. He was a one-hit wonder after releasing Short Shorts with the Royal Teens in 1957. But Gaudio would become the man to write all the hits which provided the showcase for Valli's unique voice.

Their first number one came in 1962 with Sherry. Other chart toppers followed - like Big Girls Don't Cry, Walk Like A Man and Rag Doll. But despite money and fame, the group had problems, including Tommy running up huge debts. Valli's world came crashing down after his daughter ran away and died from a drugs overdose at the age of 22.

Professionally, though, the Four Seasons were unstoppable and were inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1990. And that's what you remember most from the show. Here was an exceptional group which sold 175 million records and whose influence is still felt today. Remember 'Beginin' from 2008 by Madonna? That was a Four Seasons song and a worldwide hit all over again.

Oh yes, it was quite an afternoon!
● Jersey Boys is just one of the many shows featured in the Parrys schedule

Love your town, urge salon's calendar girls

A BEAUTY salon from Cannock is feeling the love as part of a campaign to get residents to embrace their local businesses.

The Retreat Clinic, in Huntington, was last year voted the best-loved salon in Cannock, and the sixth most loved in the UK, on www.thebestofcannock.co.uk website.

They are hoping for a similar result this year, and staff have done their best Calendar Girls impression to get behind the campaign.

Salon owner Michelle Swindell said: "We receive great feedback all year round from our customers. It is so great that this campaign encourages the support of local businesses."

The '14 Days of Love' campaign is backed by the online advertising company www.thebestofcannock.co.uk, where people can vote for their most loved businesses.

The website also encourages people to write testimonials, and The Retreat Clinic has gained several new customers as a result of their support.

"It boosts the morale of our fabulous team and highlights that 'Harley Street' treatments are available right here in Cannock," said Miss Swindell.

In their first week of hitting the number one spot, the salon made an extra £250.

Julia Canham, from The Retreat Clinic, said: "Being able to call ourselves 'most loved' has been fantastic."

Steve Mallows, who ran the Cannock franchise of www.thebestofcannock.co.uk, said: "We are so passionate about this campaign because we can't simply rely on the Government to support Cannock's businesses."

"The fact is, this is our community and it's up to us to make a difference."

For further details on The Retreat Clinic campaign call 01573 571244 or email julia@theretreatclinic.co.uk.

REGULARS at a Burntwood pub are trying to raise £200,000 to buy it and save it from a housing development.

Three major investors have already pledged money and £50,000 still needs to be found to buy the Centurion in Chase Road.

Owner Peter Sharpe has planning permission to convert the pub to a home and build another four homes on the land.

He has agreed to sell the 150-year-old pub if the money can be raised. If not, he will go ahead with the plans.

Licensee Sue Felton, who has been at the Centurion for eight years, said regulars had launched efforts to raise the money to try to keep the pub as it is.

Government's green light for Tesco in town

GOVERNMENT inspectors have given the go-ahead for a multi-million pound Tesco store in Rugeley.

The ruling means Cannock Chase Council can grant planning permission for the store, which will create 154 jobs.

Tesco says building work in Power Station Road could start later this year. The development will also include units for a restaurant, leisure facilities and a petrol station.

The local authority has already supported plans to build the 40,000sq ft store on the former Celcon factory site but the application needed to be scrutinised by the Government Office for the West Midlands to check whether it was in line with national policy on major retail development.

A previous bid to build a Tesco in Rugeley was thrown out by the Deputy Prime Minister's Office in 2002 because it was outside the town boundary. Now the Government has confirmed it is satisfied for the council to issue planning permission.

Councillor Pat Williams, town centre regeneration leader, said: "I am delighted with the Secretary of State's decision. This is good news for Rugeley town and its residents."

"Tesco will be able to deliver the first major new investment in the town for over 25 years. Hopefully it will bring more people into the town."

Church warms to food law

Rob Bruce (aged 14), Jan Mitchell from Basix Training, parish secretary Dawn Manion, Teresa Kubow and soup kitchen manager Catherine Hunt take part the level two food safety course

HEDNESFORD people were invited to a food hygiene course to learn more about health and safety.

The event was held at Our Lady of Lourdes Roman Catholic Centenary Hall, which has a new kitchen. To make the most of it, people from the community gave up the majority of their Saturday to learn about food safety and general catering best practice.

Dawn Manion, the parish secretary said: "It's a hygiene course in level two food safety and catering."

All food businesses, whether private or public, profit or non-profit making that carry out any stage of production, processing and distribution of food need to complete training to comply with EU food hygiene law.

Food business operators have a legal responsibility to ensure that staff are trained to carry out their duties safely. They need to show that all food handlers have appropriate knowledge of food hygiene.

Pensioner fails in claim over hole in garden

A PENSIONER whose garden disappeared into an old mining hole has been told she cannot claim compensation for the inconvenience.

Kathleen Roberts awoke on February 11, 2008, to find that a previously repaired fissure in the back garden of her home in Cannock had reopened and swallowed up part of her lawn and a section of fencing.

The Coal Authority, who accepted responsibility for the hole, sent workers to repair it later that year. But lawyers for Mrs Roberts, aged in her 90s, said she should have been paid damages for the temporary loss of part of her garden.

A tribunal judge has now ruled that the authority completed the work in under six months, so Mrs Roberts was not entitled to compensation. Judge Paul Francis told the Upper Tribunal that after the 20ft by 10ft hole opened in the garden of Mrs Roberts' bungalow the Coal Authority agreed to repair the hole the following month.

He said the authority estimated the cost at £2,000, but after working on the fissure until November 2008, the repair bill was more than £200,000.

Lawyers for Mrs Roberts said she should have received compensation for the inconvenience caused while her garden was levelled.

Judge Francis, a fellow of the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors, said that compensation was only given in cases when the authority spent more than six months carrying out repairs.

In this case, the authority did not provide a full schedule of the work it intended to carry out, because it underestimated the scale of the job required.

The workmen completed the repair within the six-month deadline.

Mrs Roberts could not be contacted for comment after the hearing.

Budget hotel included in village development

UP to 130 new homes, a budget hotel and a nursing home could be built as part of a mixed-use redevelopment of a Penkridge industrial estate.

Developer North Creek Estate (Penkridge) Ltd is also looking at a 45,000sq ft food store and a business unit, for the Lyne Hill Industrial Estate site off Wolverhampton Road.

Villagers have been asked to submit their views on plans to redevelop the estate after they were invited to view proposals at an exhibition at the site.

John Williams, a director of Birmingham property consultants Harris Lamb, who ran the exhibition, said the scheme would bring employment and homes to the site.

Visitors were asked if they agreed in principle to redevelopment of the estate and which elements of the proposals they liked.

Some of the new homes would be starter homes or rented property owned and managed by a housing association with some designed specifically for the elderly.

Some of the land on the 27-acre site would be set aside for public open space and there would be an opportunity to reclaim a section of the adjacent former rail line as a public footpath.

Mr Williams said they would be looking at the responses in detail before a final planning application was submitted to South Staffordshire Council.

He said there had been a good turnout at the exhibition with many responses already being received. Many of the buildings on the industrial estate have been cleared and demolition work is continuing.

There's much Wenlock would like on day out to the Chase

PUPILS in Heath Hayes designed an outfit and a day out for the Olympic mascot

Wenlock. Young members of Five Ways Primary's sports council took part in the competition and reached the regional final.

They were invited to London to explain more fully their ideas to Olympics chiefs.

PE co-ordinator Debbie Wood and acting head Michelle Walsh took the youngsters on the trip which also saw the pupils meet Wenlock and the other Olympics mascot Mandeville. They were also able to see the Olympic Stadium under construction.

They told the judging panel that if Wenlock visited them they would take him on a tour of Cannock Chase to see all the things people can do at the beauty spot, including walking and mountain biking.

Inquest family protest about op patient's care

THE family of a patient from Rugeley who died after two operations at Stafford Hospital have hit out at the care given to him.

Pensioner Bill Graham's family spoke of their concerns at an inquest held at Cannock Coroner's Court. Widow Margaret Graham, of St Michael's Road, Brereton, said her husband was left unattended following a bowel cancer operation at the hospital.

When South Staffordshire Coroner Andrew Haigh read out a report from Nicholas Harrison, a consultant surgeon at Stafford Hospital, the family said they could not believe there was no mention of Mr Graham vomiting for two days prior to his death.

Mrs Graham said that her husband was shouted at by staff and left without a sick bowl, and she had to search the hospital herself for an incontinence sheet.

The inquest heard from Mr Harrison's report that Mr Graham went to the hospital on September 14 last year to have a cancerous section of his bowel removed.

Prevented

By September 18, Mr Graham appeared "acutely unwell" and had emergency surgery, as medics believed his bowel might be leaking.

Doctors found no evidence of a leak, but noticed a lack of blood supply to the bowel which caused part of the bowel to die back.

By September 29, Mr Graham was still on ward six at the hospital and began eating and drinking small amounts. However, on October 8, doctors noticed he had low blood pressure and his pulse was racing.

Mr Graham died later that day.

Valerie Suarez, an independent pathologist, told the coroner that the 75-year-old needed to have the surgery and the cancer had been contained to his bowel.

The arteries to the bowel had narrowed, affecting the blood supply, which could have hindered his recovery.

In his summary, Mr Haigh said he had considered adjourning the inquest, but decided the family's concerns about Mr Graham's care would not have prevented his death.

Mr Haigh recorded a verdict of accidental death, saying Mr Graham died from an unfortunate complication of his surgery.

He said: "This is not neglect, in the coroner's sense of the word."

Firefighter James Farmer thanks Cannock Auto Salvage director Pete Rogers for providing scrap cars and a yard for Cannock White Watch firefighters to practise vehicle extraction techniques

Scrap yard invites for firefighters

CANNOCK firefighters had a change of scenery for their car crash rescue training thanks to a scrap yard owner.

Peter Rogers, of Cannock Auto Salvage, in Chaseside Drive, invited White Watch to complete rescue drills at his base while building work continues on the town's new fire station.

Crew commander Andy Read said building work near the current fire station, in Old Hednesford Road, had limited available space for drills.

The crew approached Mr Rogers to ask about using the site to perfect some of their life-saving skills.

Mr Read said Mr Rogers helped set up simulated car crashes using discarded cars, laying some on their side, so crews could practise using hydraulic cutting and stabilisation equipment.

"It is hard to find space that will allow you to do stuff like that," he added.

Force sharpens axe to reduce police stations

POLICE stations in Rugeley and Lichfield are among nine in Staffordshire that are being lined up to shut and be sold off to help save £20m.

The measures are part of efforts to reduce the county force's £190m budget by March 2013 because of cutbacks in government funding. Others facing the axe include Stone, Wombourne and Uttoxeter.

Chief Constable Mike Cunningham and David Pearsall, chairman of Staffordshire Police Authority, said no final decisions had been made and none would close until alternative bases were found within their locality.

"Whilst we face an unprecedented financial challenge we are looking at new ways of retaining our frontline officers to meet the needs of our communities," they said in a joint statement.

"We have already streamlined our management and command structures so that we can continue to keep officers out on the streets.

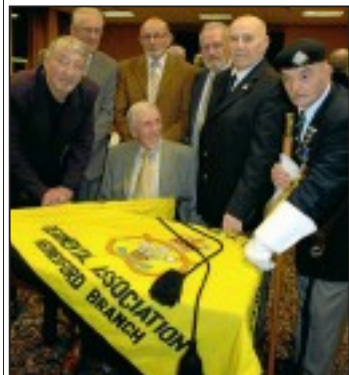

"Our most valuable resource is our people and we are considering how we deploy our officers in the best way so that we can respond to community needs.

Committed

"We are committed to protecting the number of officers in neighbourhood roles and our local inquiry offices, based at the very heart of the communities they serve."

A review has identified that some of the force's buildings are no longer ideally suitable and are either too expensive to maintain or are in the wrong location to provide the best service to communities.

In April, neighbourhood policing units will be scrapped in Staffordshire and replaced with 10 teams based on parliamentary constituencies.

Chairman Gordon Taylor (seated) and members celebrate the 60th anniversary of the Staffordshire Regimental Association's Hedgesford branch

Ex-soldiers unite

MORE than 80 former Staffordshire Regiment soldiers have gathered to celebrate a milestone anniversary with family and friends. The Hedgesford branch of the Staffordshire Regimental Association celebrated its 60th anniversary on Saturday.

More than 50 members of the branch were joined by 30 members from the Stoke-on-Trent branch for the celebration in Bridgton Social Club, Cannock.

Covering all the ages of romance

Wonderful World - Katie Melua

ME TO YOU WITH LOVE - VIRGIN

If you fancy buying a romantic CD for the one you love this Valentine's Day then you could do worse than the latest in the series Me To You With Love.

The two CD set which has 43 tracks pretty much covers all the bases no matter what age you are or which era you consider the most romantic.

If you grew up through the 50s you were just the right age to enjoy classics such as the velvet voiced Nat King Cole with L-O-V-E and the unmistakable sound of Louis Armstrong with We Have All The Time In The World to remind you of your youth although many of Satchmo's anthems have enjoyed new life thanks to advertising.

Also from the 60s are The Shirelles and Will You Still Love Me Tomorrow or The Beach Boys' God Only Knows.

Every decade is covered with Huey Lewis and The Power of Love, Elton John's haunting anthem Sorry Seems To Be The Hardest Word, Hot Chocolate's obvious flattery of You Sexy Thing and the incredible voice of Minnie Riperton and Loving you.

If wearing a rah rah skirt was your way of being romantic then you will enjoy Can't Help Falling In Love by UB40 or if you sported your best pork pie hat to impress the ladies then Madness and It Must Be Love is the one for you.

The double CD brings you through the 90s and into the new Millennium with the Spice Girls and Stop, Roxette It Must Have Been Love and of course Robbie Williams and Angels.

For those who are still in the first flush of romance there are tracks from Eliza Doolittle, Katy Perry, Lily Allen with Smile, Norah Jones and Corinne Bailey Rae.

There are some nice additions on this album as well, which include Katie Melua duetting with the late great Eva Cassidy on What A Wonderful World, The Kooks with She Moves In Her Own Way, Tom Baxter and Better, and Joe Cocker's You Are So Beautiful.

Other tracks you can smooch to come from Nina Simone, Tina Turner, Bryan Ferry, Frankie Valli, Spandau Ballet, Don McLean and Shirley Bassey.

MTYWL also includes the classic spinemelter Let's Stay Together from Al Green, so open the wine and chocolates, dim the lights, close the curtains, snuggle up and enjoy these and many more romantic sounds.

From Me To You double CD is out now on Virgin.

Guest Speaker Arnold has another string to his bow

THE Probuc Club's January Luncheon meeting was held at the Barns in Huntington, where chairman Eva Eustace welcomed all the members.

A minute's silence was observed for Mrs Betty Cowcill and Mrs Joyce Devey, long standing members of the Club, who had recently passed away.

After Grace was said by Hilda Mason, the members enjoyed a very good luncheon, after which Mrs Eustace introduced Arnold Garbett who gave an interesting talk entitled "Four Strings and a Bow."

Mr Garbett had enjoyed a most unusual hobby for 23 years, making violins, violas and cellos. After showing the ladies three of the instruments he had made, he then went on to serenade everyone with beautiful pieces of well known music and this was so special considering he had crafted the lovely instrument and then played it as a true musician. It was a very memorable experience for everyone.

Mr Garbett played in dance bands for many years and he is now a member of the Walsall Senior Citizens Orchestral.

Mr Garbett is also the present Chairman of the Cannock Chase Mens' Probuc Club.

Joyce Baxter gave the vote of thanks. In her closing words Mrs Eustace wished everyone a safe journey home.

NORTON CANES FLOWER CLUB

Members to enjoy 'Date with Bond'

THE first meeting of 2011 – the club's 41st year – was held at the Trinity Methodist Chapel, in Poplar Street.

Josie gave out the essential notices about club activities.

This was a practical evening and Christine demonstrated leaf manipulation. She then provided the leaves for the members to have a go themselves. Everyone managed to produce a leaf "flower" and some people plaited a palm leaf and manipulated an aspidistra leaf.

The varied 2011 programme includes practical evenings, demonstrations and outings.

In March there will be an open demonstration at Norton Canes High School's theatre by Claire Bond called "A Date with Bond".

The next meeting is on February 16 at 7.30pm and is a demonstration by Gail Croxall entitled "A Journey with Flowers".

Call Josie on 01543 278370.

Black Country verses grab ladies' immediate attention

HAYES GREEN WI

PRESIDENT Sandy Hobbs welcomed everyone to a very well attended meeting on a cold February evening, with a special welcome to several new members and visitors.

After the usual formalities, and the hearty rendering of Jerusalem, Mrs Hobbs introduced the speaker for the evening.

Mr David Barkey immediately gained the attention of all present with his distinctive voice and his rendition of his own Black Country verses interspersed with hilarious jokes and such like. The tea break arrived all too quickly.

Mrs Hobbs gave the vote of thanks. Secretary Elaine Smith was thanked for arranging the speakers' programme for next year.

Dianne Bevan outlined some visits this year, including Bridgemore garden centre and Dagfields Antiques and Craft Centre, Ascot Ladies' Day at Moor Hall, the annual picnic on the Chase and skittles at the Hen House.

The competition was "a belt" and the winners were Lynne, Anne and Rosemary. The raffle was won by Dianne and Eva.

Good luck was wished to the group's two teams at the County W.I. quiz on February 24.

The next monthly luncheon will be at the Winding Wheel, Heath Hayes, on Wednesday, February 23 at 12.15pm.

The next WI meeting will be on Wednesday March 2 at the usual time of 7.30pm, at St. John's Church Hall. Speaker will be one of the group's own members June Pickerill.

All ale free beer offer

CANNOCK ROTARY

FEW things gladden the heart of Rotarians in Cannock more than the offer of free beer!

Guest speaker at the Past Presidents' Evening was Andrew Slater of Slater's Ales in Stafford, who brought along many bottles of beer.

Andrew gave an interesting talk about brewing, the brewing industry and his company's history.

Slater's is a micro-brewery started by his father at the rear of the George Hotel in Eccleshall in March 1995. They moved to new premises in Stafford in 2004 trebling the size of the brewery and investing in all new plant.

As well as draught beers they now also provide bottled ales, some of which have been placed in some of the larger supermarkets.

Andrew finished by answering questions from the floor and then became very popular by giving away the beer including Premium, Queen Bee and Top Totty.

Landlord Chris Brindley at the Cross Keys pub in Hednesford

Pub wins top Camra award

A HEDNESFORD pub has won a prestigious award for the second time in two years.

The Cross Keys in Hill Street has picked up the 'Pub of the Year' award for 2010 from the Walsall branch of Camra. It also received the award in 2008.

Landlord at the pub for the past 13 years has been former Hednesford Town footballer Chris Brindley. He captained the Pitmen and scored the winner in the 2004 FA Trophy final at Villa Park. He later managed the club and has been boss at Stafford Rangers.

Mr Brindley, aged 41, said: "Obviously we're very pleased to have picked up this award. At the weekend we always have eight real ales and stock four the rest of the week."

Mr Brindley said the community feel to the pub was one of the key factors for loyal punters.

Jobs boost over health contract

Pupils look east for Chinese New Year

Celebrating the Chinese New Year Bridgtown Primary are, l to r: William Lewty (aged eight), Georgia Rowley (nine) and Ben Watkins (eight)

YOUNGSTERS at a Cannock school learned all about Oriental culture to celebrate the Chinese New Year.

Pupils in years Three and Four at Bridgtown Primary, in North Street, spent a day learning a Chinese dragon dance and then performed a play where all of the children took the parts of various animals which feature in Chinese New Years.

Teacher Esther Parsons said the children enjoyed sampling parts of Oriental culture.

She said: "Some of the children dressed up in costumes and tried Chinese food. They enjoyed learning about other cultures and the food went down well."

MORE than 300 jobs are to be created across Staffordshire as part of a new £6m contract starting in April.

The office and care worker posts have been created after Allied Healthcare was awarded the three-year deal by Staffordshire County Council for the provision of more than 8,000 hours of home care a week in Stafford, Cannock and South Staffordshire.

The idea is to enable people to live independently by remaining in their own homes. Recruits are being sought to take on work across the region.

Allied Healthcare has been supplying trained care workers, registered nurses, support workers and healthcare assistants on 24-hour call for 37 years.

The new service is to be overseen by Stafford branch manager Doug Brough who will also supervise staff at other new locations in the county to accommodate the creation of more than 300 office and field-based jobs locally.

The company is looking to recruit home care and support workers as well as field care supervisors across the Cannock area, Stafford and South Staffordshire.

The pay and benefits package includes a free training programme, free first uniforms, up to 28 days' holiday pay and a stakeholder pension scheme.

Nationally, Allied Healthcare staff provided 12 million hours of care support last year alone and holds contracts with two-thirds of commissioning local authorities, more than 100 primary care trusts and private clients.

The agency, which employs 500 people in Staffordshire, offers care to people of all ages, including those with physical or learning disabilities, dementia or terminal illnesses.

I won't stand for £53k chairs bill says Burley

Moorcroft inspires Olympics children

FORMER Olympic runner David Moorcroft and Paralympic athlete Ian Marsden launched a new sport-based initiative at St Joseph's Primary School, Rugeley.

They were promoting The Get Set 2012 programme, open to Staffordshire schools, which involves them in preparations for the Olympics in active and creative ways.

Mr Moorcroft, who chairs the West Midlands Leadership Group for the 2012 Olympics, said: "The schools I've visited are excellent examples of how London 2012 is helping to spark young people's imagination and inspiring them to get involved and make a difference."

"They have clearly demonstrated that London 2012's education programme extends far beyond PE and sport and I hope they will motivate other young people."

To find out how Staffordshire plays a part in the Olympics and Paralympics, call county coordinator Chris Kirkland on 0178 585 4595 or email chris.kirkland@staffordshire.gov.uk.

CANNOCK Chase MP Aidan Burley has discovered that the Government's spending watchdog lavished £53,000 of taxpayers' money on 224 office chairs, including designer models.

Purchases in the last 12 months by the Audit Commission – the body responsible for tackling public waste – included two Naughtone Hush chairs at £840 each, described as offering "sanctuary from the everyday hubbub".

Officials also bought four "modern and elegant" and "eye-catching" Omni swivel chairs at £854 each. In addition, they splashed out £1,962 on a six-seat Track Bench. The cheapest was £99.

The figures were released by local government minister Bob Neill in response to a question by Mr Burley.

The Audit Commission, which is to be scrapped by the coalition government as part of its "bonfire of quangos", defended the expenditure. It said it had refurbished several of its offices to reduce "space and save money", adding the chairs were "intended to last for at least 10 years".

Tory MP Mr Burley said: "It is a shocking waste of money for a spending watchdog to have shelled out so much on designer chairs. No wonder the state ran up such massive debts under Labour. This reinforces the case for scrapping this wasteful quango."

The minister told Mr Burley: "It seems that while the country was in recession, the Audit Commission went on a massive shopping spree buying designer chairs."

Undermines

"This kind of casual attitude to spending taxpayers' cash undermines faith in the public sector and is yet more evidence of how, under Labour, the Audit Commission forgot that its job was to protect the public purse."

Communities Secretary Eric Pickles accused the commission of overseeing a regime of extravagance. He listed a £40,000 bill for pot plants for its offices, £166,179 for role-play training for staff, and £3,000 for "fine dining".

MP kicks off petition over Chase future

MP Aidan Burley has kicked off a public petition calling for Cannock Chase forest to be granted heritage status.

He wants the Chase to be granted the status to keep it on a level footing with areas such as Sherwood Forest and the Forest of Dean.

The petition has been co-sponsored by the four MPs whose constituencies surround the Chase.

Mr Burley said: "I urged Defra ministers to recognise Cannock Chase is as important to our nation's heritage as the other forests that the Government has named as worthy of heritage status. I will be meeting regularly with my colleagues, Jeremy Lefroy in Stafford, Gavin Williamson in South Staffordshire, Tristram Hunt in Stoke-on-Trent and Michael Fabricant in Lichfield, to co-ordinate our efforts and will welcome support from all other MPs in Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent.

"We are inviting all of our constituents to sign the petition to Defra ministers."

The petition has been welcomed by Mark Davis, head of Save Cannock Chase.

However, Mr Davis is sceptical about how charities would cope running the Chase. He is also worried that if trusts are set up, and then fail, the land could again be put up for sale.

People can sign Mr Burley's petition at www.aidan-burleymp.org/local-issues/petition-for-heritage-status-for-cannock-chase

Paper copies are located at High Green Court, in Newhall Street, Cannock.

Backing Mr Burley's calls, Lichfield MP Michael Fabricant said: "Although there is no question of forests being sold off by the Government - they will be leased with strict conditions regarding access and regeneration - Cannock Chase deserves the additional status of being designated a Heritage forest."

Verity Challinor, Michael Drake and cast members promote the Chase Day Service Theatre Craft production of Summer Holiday as they celebrate their 21st anniversary

Cast all going on a summer holiday

A CANNOCK theatre group is celebrating its 21st anniversary by performing the musical Summer Holiday, based on the popular Cliff Richard 1960s film.

The show is being performed at the Prince of Wales Centre next Thursday and Friday (February 17/18) by Theatrecraft, part of Chase Day Service.

The 28-strong cast is mainly made up of people with learning disabilities. Day service officer and producer Barbara Draper said: "Everyone has been working hard on the production."

Performances are at 7.30pm each night. Tickets are £8.50 from either 01543 578762 or 01543 503069.

Moving signs

PARISH councillors in Heath Hayes and Wimblebury say pranksters keep pointing road signs the wrong way round. They say the sign outside the constitutional club, in Hedgesford Road, is being constantly turned in the opposite direction.

Adele's 21 has loads of soul

ADELE - 21 (XL)

TWO years on from her hit debut 19 and, as well as the key to the door, Adele Adkins will find the key to the hearts of many more music lovers with this mature and often magnificent album of bluesy soul about bruised and broken hearts.

It opens with the rolling swampy blues thump of Rolling In The Deep and the north Londoner follows it with the retro soul pop of Rumour Has It.

The first of the big ballads which dominate this album is Turning Tables. The other songs which showcase a big powerful voice that is capable of tenderness too are the country-tinged Don't You Remember, Take It All and Someone Like You. The pace is varied with the jazz-urban flavoured He Won't Go, 80s-like rocker Set Fire To The Rain, the gospel-influenced I'll Be Waiting and a gentle version of The Cure's Lovesong.

Which brings us to the final number, Someone Like You, which sends shivers down the spine.

All in all, an early contender for album of the year and possibly the best British album of its type since Dusty went to Memphis.

BRUNO MARS - DOO-WOPS & HOOLIGANS (ELEKTRA)

The 25-year-old Hawaiian has a supple soulful voice with a hint of grit, first widely heard when he guested on rapper Travie McCoy's global hit Billionaire.

His debut is almost a masterclass on how to make modern pop hits. Style-wise, it ranges from power ballad to gentle reggae, and guests include B.O.B, Damian Marley and Cee Lo Green. When an album starts with two pop songs as good as Grenade and Just The Way You Are, you are hooked, even if a couple of lesser tracks sound a bit like filler.

Adele's powerful emotional vocals on new album 21 recall the late, great Dusty Springfield

GLEE, THE MUSIC, VOLUME 4 (SONY MUSIC)

The cult TV show about a high school singing club is back on our screens and here is a selection of songs from season two, including Glee revamps of Empire State Of Mind, Billionaire, Toxic, Forget You (with Gwyneth Paltrow) and Valerie.

Highlights include Rachel's (Lea Michele) version of Paramore's The Only Exception, Kurt's (Chris Colfer) tender reboot of The Beatles' I Want To Hold Your Hand and - step forward Mercedes (Amber Riley) and Santana (Naya Rivera) - River Deep Mountain High.

Dance favourite at Garrick

PRECIOUS LITTLE SLEEP...

TWINKLED-TOED dancing favourite Wayne Sleep is touring the UK with his brand new show, which comes to Lichfield on March 4.

The 62-year-old underwent a hip operation last year and has pledged that he's fitter than ever as he showcases his Precious Little Sleep tour.

The performance will take on a biographical stance of his life and career in dance, cited by Wayne as, "a montage of my best spins from famous dances".

Born in Plymouth in 1948 Sleep starting dancing at an early age and became the shortest male dancer ever, at 5ft 2in, to be accepted into the Royal Ballet.

Sleep's memorable performances include a routine with Diana Princess of Wales as a surprise for Prince Charles in a Royal Opera House gala in 1985, as well as numerous appearances both on stage and screen.

Credits on stage include Cats, Chitty Chitty Bang Bang and Cabaret, while film and TV appearances include Elizabeth 1, The Tales of Beatrix Potter, Strictly Dance Fever and The South Bank Show.

Appointed an OBE in 1998, Sleep is Patron of the British Ballet Organisation and Vice President of the Royal Academy of Dance.

Workshops

He has now set-up a charity, The Wayne Sleep Foundation, to help aspiring youngsters and continues to pass on his knowledge through his dance workshops across the world.

Precious Little Sleep promises an eclectic mix of energetic dance routines from Sleep's most acclaimed repertoire spanning three decades - performed and choreographed by the very man himself.

Tickets are priced £19.50 for adults and £17.50 for concessions.

Haunting play makes city return

A POPULAR theatre production is returning to Lichfield this spring for a second run.

Following last year's huge sell-out success, the Lichfield Garrick has announced that Haunting Julia is set to return for a two-week run before transferring to the Riverside Studios in London.

Christopher Timothy will once again perform alongside Richard O'Callaghan and Dominic Hecht in the chilling tale, from April 30 to May 14.

Alan Ayckbourn's play follows the story of three men coming to terms with the death of Julia - a musical prodigy. Her body was found lying in a pool of blood 12 years earlier, but did she really take her own life?

Tickets cost £10 to £18 and can be booked from www.lichfieldgarrick.com or on 01543 412121.

CORONARY HEART DISEASE

Heart disease by itself it the UK's biggest killer and the most common cause of premature death in the UK (death before the age of 75).

Current figures show:

- One in five men and one in seven women die from heart disease
- That's around 94,000 deaths in the UK each year; over 250 every day
- Around 2.5 million people are living with heart disease in the UK

Heart Attack

Most deaths from heart disease are caused by a heart attack. Every six minutes someone dies of a heart attack in the UK. One in three people who have a heart attack die before reaching hospital.

Heart Failure

Around 700,000 people are living with heart failure in the UK

The British Heart Foundation (BHF) charity's vision is a world where people don't die prematurely from heart disease.

The BHF aims to achieve this through pioneering research, vital prevention activity and ensuring quality care and support for everyone living with heart disease.

The charity was founded in 1961 by a group of medical professionals wanting to fund extra research into the causes, diagnosis, treatment and prevention of heart and circulatory disease.

But, in making such an ambitious vision a reality, it helps to set some milestones along the way and this is why the BHF has set a number of objectives to guide its day-to-day work.

However, this can't be achieved alone. The charity is working alongside the Government, health charities, healthcare professionals and thousands of dedicated supporters to beat heart disease. Everybody has a part to play.

Its mission is to play a leading role in the fight against disease of the heart and circulation, so that it is no longer a major cause of disability and premature death.

In the strategy report, Beating Heart Disease Together, published in 2007, the BHF stated that, within a generation, it aims to:

- Reduce cardiovascular disease in the UK to one of the lowest levels in Europe.

Within a decade, the BHF aims to:

- Halve the number of people under 75 who die from cardiovascular disease.
- Make sure at least two thirds of people under 75 survive a heart attack.
- Reduce heart-related deaths in all UK local authority areas to the current level in south east England or below.
- Reverse the increase in childhood obesity.

To help the charity get there, it's set a number of objectives across the following areas:

- Research • Information • Campaigning • Care • Equality

To make all this work possible, the BHF relies on the public's generous donation of time and money.

Keep the faith with Bon Jovi tribute act

THE ONLY Bon Jovi tribute act to have shared a stage with the man himself visit Lichfield next week.

The Bon Jovi Experience have been labelled as an outstanding tribute to the hugely successful American group and will perform at the Garrick Theatre next Friday (February 18).

Fronted by Tony Pearce, who has been performing the music of Bon Jovi for more than 15 years, the band were the first to be asked to perform on the US New Jersey tribute album Garden State of Mind.

They were told recently by BBC Radio DJ and TV personality Chris Evans that they were the best tribute band he had ever seen and have been asked to appear live on Evans's show.

After his departure from By Jovi in 2004, Pearce spent a year forming The Bon Jovi Experience with Steve Millichamp, who he met earlier on in his career.

The real Bon Jovi formed in New Jersey, 1983 and have sold more than 120 million albums worldwide.

They have also performed around 2,600 concerts in more than 50 countries for 34 million fans.

In 2006 Bon Jovi were inducted into the UK Music Hall of Fame, while in 2004 they were ranked number 14 in Q magazine's 50 Greatest Bands of All Time.

Hits such as Livin' on a Prayer, Keep the Faith and You Give Love a Bad Name became household classics and the band are still touring today.

Tickets for the Bon Jovi Experience are £18.50 and can be booked online at www.lichfieldgarrick.com or by calling 01543 412121.

Sounds of the Fab Four

CELEBRATED Fab Four tribute act The Complete Beatles make an appearance at a Hednesford pub this weekend.

Focusing their appearance and set list on the classic 'early' Beatles style, the band are regulars in the Midlands.

They play the Tackeroo pub on Saturday (February 12) with tickets costing £7.

The day before a Green Day tribute band take to the stage, for which tickets are £5.

Both gigs start at 9pm at the Bracken Close, Brindley Heath venue.

Call 01543 423124 for details.

Folk musician kicks off new monthly schedule

ONE of the country's most acclaimed folk musicians will kick off Lichfield Arts's February schedule tomorrow (Friday).

Multi-instrumentalist Phil Beer is perhaps best known for his work as one half of Show of Hands, to date the only folk duo to have sold out the Royal Albert Hall.

For this concert the guitarist, singer, mandolinist and fiddle player will be joined by an impressive line up of musicians.

Melodeon player Gareth Turner, double bass player, guitarist and singer Miranda Sykes, drummer Steve Crickett, fiddler Olivia Dunn and bassist and vocalist Nick Quarmby are due to join Beer on stage.

They draw on a wide range of sounds and style and the show will feature elements of folk, rock, blues, country, jazz and a myriad of other forms.

Lichfield Arts director Brian Pretty said: "Phil Beer is widely regarded as one of the most versatile and in demand musicians playing on the folk circuit."

"This will be one of the highlights of our spring season and I strongly recommend buying your tickets soon to avoid disappointment."

"Lichfield has a healthy folk music audience and tickets will be in demand." The concert starts at 8.30pm and tickets cost £15, £14 for concessions, £13 for members and £7 for students.

To book visit www.lichfieldarts.org, call the box office on 01543 262223, or visit the Lichfield Arts Box Office in Donegal House, Bore Street.

Cast members of Stars Academy's Robin Hood and his Menly Men

Panto time for young stars

A CANNOCK drama group is extending the pantomime season into February as it looks to raise funds for Comic Relief.

Stars Academy of Young Performers has arranged the pantomime, Robin Hood and his Menly Men, which has been written and arranged by drama teacher Simon Stokes.

Parents of the young cast members are getting involved too, treading the boards in an attempt to boost the fundraising total.

All proceeds from ticket sales and a charity raffle will go directly for Comic Relief, which is on Friday March 18.

Performances will take place at the Rose Theatre on Friday 25 and Saturday 26 February at the Rose Theatre, in Taylors Lane Rugeley.

Writer Simon said: "We have had tremendous support from local businesses, in supporting this show."

Raffle prizes range from dinner, bed and breakfast at the Ramada Hotel, tickets for horse and greyhound racing in Wolverhampton, paintballing, spa vouchers and show tickets.

Academy principal, Jacqui Stokes said: "This is the funniest version of Robin Hood, you will ever see."

Last year the group managed to raise £1,064 and hope to reach £1,500 this time around.

The performance has been given a 12A rating; it is suitable for children, but contains mild innuendo.

Tickets are priced at £7 for adults, £5 concessions and £20 for a family ticket of two adults and two children.

To book, contact Simon on 07812 073283 or 01543 899203.

Bands to join in aid of charity

Rugeley Power Station Band, Cannock Ex-Servicemen's Choir and Heath Hayes School Choir are performing at the chairman of Cannock Chase Council's Charity Concert.

It takes place on Sunday March 6 at 7pm at the Prince of Wales Centre and tickets are £7, with £6 for concessions.

All proceeds go to the local branches of the Royal British Legion.

To book call the theatre's box office on 01543 578762.

Matt Dillon who stars in Takers

Open House (18)
DESPITE the prominence of True Blood stars Anna Paquin and Stephen Moyer on the cover, they only feature on screen briefly as victims in Open House.

Perhaps Miss Paquin and her screen and real life partner Moyer were showing support for her brother Andrew Paquin, who directs this slow moving but efficient slasher thriller.

The main trio are Rachel Blanchard (from TV's Clueless) who as divorcee Alice is held prisoner in her own home by a psycho couple (Tricia Helfer from Battlestar Galactica and the quietly intense Brian Geraghty) after an 'open house' viewing to sell her home results in a killer hiding in her basement.

The gruesome twosome – a true nympho-maniac and her dominated partner in crime – stab and slash every potential rescuer but then Alice attempts to form a relationship with her male captor.

It's fairly predictable stuff but well done.

However, the main interest for True Blood fans will be hearing Moyer using his native English accent rather than the southern drawl he adopts for HBO's saucy vampire thriller.

Takers (12)
This heist thriller reckons it's slick, stylish and cool, but derivative, cliched and boring would be better adjectives.

A tough detective, played by Matt Dillon on auto-pilot, will not rest until he brings a gang of cocky bank robbers – including Paul Walker from Fast & Furious, Tip 'T' Harris from TV's Entourage and Hayden Christensen from various Star Wars movies – to justice.

You've probably seen this story done before but much better featuring Pacino or De Niro.

Both movies are also available on Blu-ray.

Micky Flanagan, Town Hall, Birmingham

SOMEWHERE there's a mum and dad with a lot of explaining to do.

Cockney comic Micky Flanagan went through a whole host of topics during his sell-out Town Hall show, some of them not necessarily for the ears of the young girl that had been brought along by her parents.

There was a lot of adult and sexual content in the show, not to mention the language.

However, on the sixth date of his Out Out tour, Flanagan had the whole crowd in fits of laughter throughout, regaling tales of his time as a teacher,

Magic of Motown, The Grand Theatre

AN electric atmosphere was created from start to finish for this show.

It had a packed out audience of all ages on their feet for a well-deserved standing ovation.

A superb band captured the distinctive Detroit sound to perfection, recreating all-time favourites from The Temptations, The Four Tops, Diana Ross and The Supremes, Marvin Gaye and Stevie Wonder and many more.

A wonderful Jackson Five

Reviews: live shows

of growing up in the East End, of previous relationships and of his wife and child.

He added that while most comedians had a catchphrase, he was hoping his Cockney gait would become his catchwalk.

Important questions were answered such as why teenage pregnancies are on the rise, and while Flanagan doesn't tell 'Joke Jokes', he can no doubt spin a yarn, such as the time his young boy embarrassed him on the bus.

The popular funnyman has added an extra date to his tour and will be at the Symphony Hall on March 31.

medley received roars of appreciation from the audience.

The fabulous male harmonies and stunning female vocals had the audience clapping along to hit after hit, Stop, In the Name of Love, My Guy, Dancing in the Street, I'll Be There and My Girl to name a few.

With more than 16 dazzling costume changes, slick choreography and its fast moving pace, this lavish production delivered a memorable evening out.

Reviews: games

Dead Space 2 (18, EA)

IT'S basically Resident Evil in space though developers Visceral have taken the space ship location of Dead Space and expanded it to a whole city, known as The Sprawl.

Taking elements from the games Aliens vs Predator and Resident Evil, plus a whole slew of horror and sci-fi movie influences – chiefly Alien and The Thing – DS2 efficiently delivers the thrills and chills as survivor Isaac Clarke (we now see what he looks like), still haunted by visions of his dead girlfriend, must battle an onslaught of gruesome new Necromorphs.

These most unpleasant aliens use the bodies of their victims to warp and morph into monstrous creatures, including acid pukers and zombie vampire babies. Not nice. There are a range of difficulty levels, with the top level being insanely hardcore, and you can play as the Necromorphs in multi-player mode.

It's tougher than the original and more time-consuming for those determined to get to the end. But by the time you've offed the zillionth Necromorph, you might start to yearn for the more rounded game experience of a Fallout or BioShock.

Reviewed on Xbox 360 this game is also available for PC and PS3.

Little Big Planet 2 (7, Sony)

Still one of the best reasons to buy a PS3, the Little Big Planet franchise steps up a gear with the iconic Sackboy now able to fashion all sorts of games, not just the 2D platformers of the original LBP. It allows the gamer to bring their own ingenuity to this colourful universe, surely the way to go in a gaming world where too often the experience is still 'on rails'.

Once again, Stephen Fry provides the voice over as the Story Mode takes you through eight worlds and around 30 levels, punctuated by bonus levels inspired by other game styles.

Then begins the business of creating your own levels via the level editor. It's a steep learning curve but stick with it to get the most out of this game. As for Sackboy, isn't it time he got a few more powers... maybe that will come in Little Big Planet 3?

Seal of approval for leading window firm

DESPITE the shrinking economy, one local company has grown to become one of the leading manufacturers of uPVC windows, doors and conservatories in the West Midlands.

Energy seal, based in Planetary Road, Wednesfield, has a 20-strong workforce, all of whom strive to be the very best in the industry in all areas.

This dedication to quality begins with excellent manufacturing of their window system, through to excellent customer service.

Family-run

The company is a family-run business with two brothers, David and Richard Carter, at the helm. Director of sales, David, says: "We aim to give our customers the very best service the industry can offer."

"Through being involved directly with sales, we can develop a special relationship with customers the second their phone rings."

"Then, when our customers become confident they are buying their windows, doors or conservatories off the right company, we then get the project underway."

"Starting with a free technical survey of the work being carried out, we then project-manage everything from that point on."

"In our conservatories range we have many different options for our customers."

"We provide the finished article, starting with the base, brickwork, erecting the uPVC frames and roof, right down to fitting electrics, tiling the floor and fitting vertical blinds."

"In our showroom, we have six full-sized conservatories fully-fitted with fixtures and fittings to show our customers exactly what they're buying."

"Energyseal is also looking to create more jobs in the local area."

Richard, trade director, adds: "When we started manufacturing, we had three employees. Three years on we now employ 10 fabricators, two fitting teams and six office staff."

"We are always looking to expand our business so we can create new jobs for local people. Because we offer such an excellent service, most of our work comes from recommendations so this gives us the opportunity to grow. We also supply to the trade industry."

"If you are interested in buying any of our extensive range of windows, doors or conservatories, call us on 01902 866000 and one of our friendly advisers will be happy to help with your enquiry."

"Alternatively, pop into our showroom for a free no obligation quote."

Detached is in a popular location

AN opportunity exists to acquire a well-presented and extended four-bedroom detached house that is located in one of Cannock's most sought after residential areas.

The property in Gorsey Lane is within walking distance of local schools, the town centre, amenities and easy reach of major toll and trunk roads.

On the market for £430,000, the property has been vastly improved and updated and benefits from under floor gas central heating on the ground floor, wood burner stoves, uPVC double glazing and is alarmed.

Utility

It briefly comprises a driveway, garage, recessed porch, gallery hallway, sitting room, dining room, breakfast kitchen, utility, guest cloaks, living room, master bedroom with en suite, three further bedrooms and a family bathroom.

To the rear of the property is a large lawned garden.

This property in Gorsey Lane is on the market with estate agent Marwood

This two-bed semi is available in Hednesford, priced around £119,950

Semi is near to local amenities

THIS two-bed semi-detached property is situated in a popular area of Hednesford within easy reach of all local amenities including shops, schools and transport links.

The property in Bond Way is well-presented throughout and an internal viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the accommodation on offer.

Access is via a generous-sized driveway providing ample parking for several cars with lawn area to side leading to an entrance hall.

Access is via a double glazed front door with overhead canopy leading in to the entrance hallway with double glazed window to side, laminate flooring, gas central heating radiator and stairs leading to first floor accommodation.

The lounge has a double glazed bow window to the front, coving to ceiling, laminate flooring, inset gas fire with feature surround and a gas central heating radiator.

There is a fitted kitchen with two double glazed windows to the rear, a range of wall, drawer and base units, rolled-top work surfaces, sink and drainer, space for an oven, space and plumbing for a washing machine, tiled splashbacks, tiled flooring, storage cupboard and heated towel rail.

Off the first floor landing, bedroom one has a double glazed window to front, built-in wardrobe with mirrored front and a gas central heating radiator.

A second bedroom has a double glazed window to rear and a gas central heating radiator.

The family bathroom has a double glazed window to rear, low-level WC, pedestal wash basin, panelled bath with shower over, fully tiled throughout, tiled flooring, inset lighting and a heated towel rail.

Outside, the enclosed rear garden has panel boundary fencing, patio area, raised decking area, lawn area, shrub borders, shed and gated access to side of property.

The house is available for offers based on £119,950.

The exotic looking anthurium is easy enough to keep

Keep cool – Macrantha presents a challenge to growers

Gingers have a most wonderful smell and look great

Subtle – shades of orange and yellow from the clivia

Get pots of colour from an indoor winter plant

THIS is the time of year when indoor plants can truly be appreciated. Many of them are easy to grow and gorgeous to look at.

Clivias are easy to look after. They just need to be kept in a cool, frost free place for most of the year.

Mine are in bud now, and will be out very soon, brightening the winter gloom with orange and yellow.

The leaves are pretty too, lush in colour they look good even when the plant is not in flower.

They can be put outside in the summer in a shady place where they should do well.

Another fine looking plant is the ginger. These have a lovely smell and can be put outside in the summer and brought in before the frosts take hold.

Some may flower outside, making a grand appearance towards the end of the summer.

Once they have finished flowering, I cut them back, so they do not take up too much room inside.

Pampered

If you have a greenhouse, they can be put under the staging for the remainder of winter.

Anthuriums are exotic in looks, with red bracts that are so grand. They seem to be calling out to be pampered.

GARDENING WITH PAT EDWARDS

They do need a higher temperature than some of the other plants, and do like a bit of humidity, so they should be sprayed with plain water most days.

The peace lily has white flowers, similar to those of the anthurium. It is, in my opinion, easier to keep, although it does require similar conditions.

Some plants are lovely even without flowers – and worth growing in the winter purely for the brightness of the leaves.

Macrantha is one such plant. It likes humidity and warmer temperatures and much like the anthurium benefits from being given a fine spray of water.

Divided

It likes to be moist, not wet, and can be fussy over this.

All these plants will gradually increase in size, leading to the need to re-pot eventually.

When they are really big they can be divided into two, making an ideal gift for a friend.

Peace lilies enjoy similar conditions to the anthurium

Home where the heart is

As we approach Valentine's Day it would seem that there's a fair bit of love involved in estate agency.

Estate agents are, if anything, matchmakers after all. And just as people fall in love with the right person, so buyers also need to fall in love with a property if the sale is to succeed.

Just as a good matchmaker will not just put people on a database and expect them to enter into a long term loving relationship, so our job is far more than a simple broking service.

That is why we go to great lengths to understand our buyers' needs, preferences, hopes, desires and aspirations in respect of their future home.

Only through this understanding can we guide them to the right property.

Of course, our matchmaking brief may be to find a Cheryl Cole or George Clooney, which, in property terms, can be ambitious!

Buyers tend to have up to ten factors on their wish list that they seek to fulfil.

However, in our experience there is usually an element of compromise on around four of these.

Desirables

Interestingly, despite location being the first on the list of preferences, it is often the factor that is compromised first, with many people buying slightly out of their preferred area in order to secure a home that fulfils more of their other desirables.

Speaking of desirables, during this Valentine season, while we don't recommend that you necessarily fall in love with your estate agent, it is important that you choose one you actually like.

Are they professionally attractive?

- Do they listen to you?
- Do they understand you?
- Do they call you?
- Are they honest with you?
- Do they share their feelings with you?

• Do they respect you?
 So often relationships with agents can fail for the same reasons as any other.

But if you ask our clients, you'll find our love is expressed in some very practical ways. Happy Valentine's Day

The Levett Grange development in Rugeley

Development is a hit with buyers

TAYLOR Wimpey's brand new Levett Grange development in Rugeley has proved to be a big hit with quick-off-the-mark buyers.

Since this highly desirable new homes collection was unveiled to the public in November, five properties have been snapped up by eager purchasers.

With interest continuing to run high, property-seekers are being urged to visit the development as soon as possible to give themselves the best chance of finding their perfect match.

Carl Cooke, Regional Sales and Marketing Director for Taylor Wimpey North Midlands, says: "Levett Grange has really captured the imagination of first-time buyers in Rugeley and we have been delighted with the number of people who have already reserved a home at this highly sought-after development."

"With new enquiries coming in every day, Levett Grange looks set to go from strength to strength. Therefore, I would advise would-be buyers to visit Levett Grange without delay to make sure they can secure the home of their dreams."

Levett Grange provides a wealth of choice for first-time buyers and downsizers through to growing families, executives and investors.

Current homes for sale at the development include the two-bedroom 'Ashby' terraced house, priced from just £125,995, three-bedroom homes available from £138,995, plus a stunning selection of four-bedroom detached designs from as little as £199,950.

To make choosing a home at Levett Grange even more appealing, Taylor Wimpey offers a range of incentives for first-time buyers and those with a home to sell, including help with deposits and assistance with finding a buyer for a current property.

All incentives can be tailored to customers' circumstances and are subject to availability. Further details are available from the Sales Executive.

Levett Grange is conveniently located in Wolsley Road, on the outskirts of the historic Staffordshire market town of Rugeley, and will enjoy a spacious open layout including secluded cul-de-sacs and attractive landscaped avenues.

The development lies within easy reach of a host of amenities in Rugeley, including an indoor shopping centre, a thriving outdoor market held three times a week, plus a wide selection of pubs, restaurants, takeaways, supermarkets and a leisure centre.

Commuters will appreciate that the A460 and the A51 are both just a short distance from home, providing quick links by road to Stafford, Lichfield, Burton upon Trent and Birmingham. Rugeley Trent Valley railway station is located only a mile from the development for frequent and direct services to Birmingham New Street and Stafford.

Levett Grange lies on the edge of Cannock Chase – a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty covering 26 square miles and a popular spot for walking, cycling and wildlife spotting – while family days out within easy reach include Alton Towers theme park, Monkey Forest wildlife centre and Go Ape! adventure park.

To find out more about the new homes at Levett Grange, property-hunters can visit the Sales Centre in Wolsley Road, Rugeley, WS15 2EU, open Thursday to Monday from 11am to 5pm, or contact the Sales Executive on 0845 239 2123.

Secure the garage and fences and put up motion-sensitive security lights at the front and rear of your new home

Making right moves will help you settle in

In all the excitement and stress of moving, keeping your possessions safe and sound is important.

Now reallymoving.com, the UK's leading provider of instant online quotes for home-movers, has these 10 tips for a secure moving day.

1. Choose a reputable removals firm
You want the peace of mind that your possessions are in safe hands, and that the firm has the right insurance. Reallymoving.com vets all removals companies that feature on the site and the star-rating system lets you know what other users thought.

2. Start early
Start early in the day to give yourself the best chance of being in your new home by dark, especially in winter, when the days are shorter.

3. Don't unload onto the pavement
When unloading your belongings, take them straight into the house. Don't unload onto the pavement or front garden, leaving items in sight for opportunistic thieves.

4. Replace locks as soon as possible
Check that you have all the right keys for your new home, and that the previous owner hasn't left a set under the doormat or with a neighbour! You should think about arranging for a locksmith to change the locks on the front door at least, especially if the house has previously been rented.

5. Check your insurance policy
A reputable removals firm will be insured for your belongings in transit, but not when

Check the burglar alarm is in working order, replace all locks as soon as possible and make sure a set of keys has not been put under the doormat or left with a neighbour they are in your new house, so make sure your contents and buildings insurance will be valid when you move.

6. Secure the garden and garage
The front door is not the only way to access your property! Burglars will look for weak points such as garden gates, garages or gaps in fences so make sure you check that they are all secure and locked.

7. Get to know your neighbours
Introduce yourself to your new neighbours as soon as you can after moving in. If they know you and your family, they will be more likely to notice anything untoward or suspicious.

8. Hang Curtains
You should hang curtains in your new home as soon as you can to help keep prying eyes out. Curtains will keep your valuables out of sight.

9. Check your burglar alarm
Burglar alarms are one of the most effective ways of making a home more secure. Check that you have the code to operate any alarm at your new property, and reset it as soon as possible with a new combination.

10. Install outside lighting
Motion-sensitive security lights are another highly effective security feature. Install lights at both the front and rear of the house.
Rosemary Rogers, a director of reallymoving.com, said: "Moving home is an exciting time, but it is also when your belongings could be at their most vulnerable."

"Taking just a few sensible security precautions prior to moving and on the day will make sure that you and your possessions are safe and sound from the start."

Make a move the easy way with scheme

Selling your home doesn't have to be a nightmare, explains Carl Cooke, sales and marketing director for Taylor Wimpey North Midlands

BUYING a new home can seem like a distant dream for many would-be movers – and not always because they're first-time buyers struggling to purchase their first property.

Sometimes an existing home that has previously given a homeowner their foothold on the property ladder can become the problem when the time comes to sell it on and move upmarket.

The hassle involved in selling a home cannot be under-estimated – keeping it perfectly tidy and ready for viewings, the emotional stress of negotiating prices, offers falling through at the last minute – and it's a roller-coaster that most people are glad to get off.

Unfortunately for many homeowners, this stressful state of affairs can last for far too long, with homes often remaining unsold for several months.

The fact is that one in four of Taylor Wimpey's customers who have bought a new home this year in the North Midlands region – which covers Staffordshire, Shropshire, Warwickshire, Derbyshire, Birmingham and the Black Country – had an existing property to sell, and many were frustrated by the lack of progress they had experienced in trying to sell their own homes.

However, there is an easier way to move – and that's where schemes like part exchange and easymover can help those choosing selected brand new Taylor Wimpey homes.

Hassle

With part exchange, Taylor Wimpey agrees a price for an existing property based on the average of independent valuations.

With the housebuilder as their guaranteed buyer, the customer can then relax and stay in their home until their brand new place is ready to move into.

Meanwhile, with easymover, Taylor Wimpey acts as the customer's 'personal estate agent' and takes all the stress and hassle out of finding a buyer for their current home.

The average selling time for easy-mover customers is less than five weeks – and many see their previous homes sold within just a fortnight.

Ninety per cent of properties are sold successfully through the initiative, the typical timescale from sale to exchange of contracts is just 10 weeks, and Taylor Wimpey can even cover the cost of estate agents' fees.

Warranty

The customer stays in control of the price and doesn't have to sell if they're not happy – so there's nothing to lose and everything to gain!

What's more, a specialist house-to-home removal service will provide buyers with a fully inclusive moving package that covers full packing and unpacking, even insurance cover, all for free.

And when purchasers move into their brand new Taylor Wimpey home, they've got the peace of mind of Taylor Wimpey's two-year warranty and the National House-Building Council's ten-year Buildmark guarantee.

Selling your home doesn't have to be one of the most stressful experiences of your life, so why not sit back and take it easy while Taylor Wimpey does all the hard work for you?

Your onions need long growth for a top crop

Mid winter may seem an odd time to start growing for the vegetable plot – but some seeds need a long growing season to produce a worthwhile crop.

Take onions grown from seed as an example, writes John Clowes.

Sown in the New Year when the days have started to get longer they will produce seedlings with a good root system ready to plant out in early spring.

I usually stick to traditional favourite Ailsa Craig, although it doesn't store as long as Hi Keeper or Hytech. Remember to sow thinly and to keep the seed tray at temperatures around 20°C (70°F).

At this time of the year compost heaps cool off as they sink down to a wet, compressed mass.

To encourage bacteria to continue with their job of breaking down organic matter and to raise temperatures, it's a good idea to turn the heap so that you can add air and extra carbon to the system.

Scattering

As you move the material into a fresh bin tease out the material and if it's particularly wet add sheets of newspaper or cardboard as you progress. If the edges of the heap have dried out, move these to the centre of the heap and water thoroughly.

After every layer of 20cm (8in) a handful or two of Miracle-Gro Compost Maker will help to feed the rotting process and a scattering of soil will add more bacteria and microbes.

When you've finished top off the heap with a piece of old carpet to help retain moisture and heat and keep out some of the rain.

Select a sunny spot in which to grow shallots and increase the fertility of the soil by raking in a dressing of Miracle-Gro Fruit & Vegetable Plant Food. First remove any dead foliage from the tops of the bulbs before planting. Otherwise birds will pull out the bulbs from the earth thinking this dried material is ideal for building their nests.

Plant the shallots in shallow drills, leaving a space of around 20cm (8 in) between bulbs in rows 30cm (12 in) apart.

Continue to dig over the veg patch,

Trim dead foliage from shallots to stop the birds from gathering it for their nests adding manure of Miracle-Gro Soil Improver where you are going to grow beans, peas, marrows and brassicas. Don't add manure to areas that is to grow root crops such as carrots and parsnips. It can encourage roots to fork.

Order seed potatoes now or wait until the end of the month before buying from your garden centre.

This year I'm going to go for Foremost and Lady Christl for earlies and Maris Piper and Red Duke of York for later harvesting. When you have your chosen varieties at home, place the potatoes, rose end up, in a light but cool room, preferably one that isn't heated. The potatoes will then start to produce sturdy, green shoots (called chitting) so they grow faster when planted outside in March or April.

TOPICAL TIP

Protect any brassica crops of cabbages, sprouts or sprouting broccoli with netting strung tautly above top growth to keep hungry pigeons from eating the leaves and ruining the crop with their droppings.

Woman have the final word in house choice

When it comes to buying a new home women are most likely to have the final say on which is bought, while men are left to pick up the cost and paperwork, according to a survey.

FindaProperty.com, one of the UK's leading property portals, surveyed over 2000 people to find which gender was most active in the house buying process.

The research revealed that traditional gender stereotypes are alive and well with women making the key nesting decisions and men look after the financial and legal aspects of moving.

Two thirds (62.9%) of women make the ultimate decision on whether to buy a new property – twice the number of men who take on that responsibility (37.2%).

FindaProperty.com property analyst Nigel Lewis said: "It is clear that more women than men prefer sorting out the initial

Gender roles in homebuying

Legal & financial	54.3%	45.6%

stages of a property search which means filtering potential homes by location, size, proximity to local amenities and appearance. Men, on the other hand, tend to be keener on helping make the final decision and sorting out the financial and legal aspects of a move.

"But both of these roles are equal in importance and illustrate how a team effort is needed to secure the perfect home."

The internet proves a particularly popular way for both men and women to search for a new home with 61.4 per cent people admitting to looking at properties online everyday and almost nine in 10 receiving regular property email alerts.

The main reason for looking at property online was the ease of being able to see, and receive alerts, on when properties in their price bracket become available (49.1 per cent). One in five (22.7 per cent) like looking at properties without having to speak to an agent.

A further 19.1 per cent just like browsing. Three per cent compare their own properties with others in the area, and a further 3.1% just want to see what they might be able to afford one day.

Mr Lewis added: "The internet has revolutionised the way we look for property and property portals in particular have made the experience easier, allowing house hunters to search for, and focus on, the aspects which are important to them.

"The fact that so many people receive property email alerts or browse properties online demonstrates how looking for your next home has almost become a national pastime."

RENAULT TWINGO GORDINI

ROAD TEST

Cut a dash with flash Gordini

There's already a hot version of the Twingo, so why should we need another? Especially when it's no quicker...

Well, although the Twingo Renaultsport Cup 133 represents exceptional value at just over £12,000 on the road, it's a spartan car for driving enthusiasts – without even air conditioning as standard.

And the French firm is aware that many drivers want to retain the performance of the Renaultsport car while enjoying a few more of life's little luxuries.

So it has put out a prestige version of the Twingo Renaultsport, in strictly limited quantities, and revived its famous Gordini badge for the car.

The Twingo Gordini 133 bears the famous name and colours of the man they called 'the Sorcerer'. Amedeo Gordini's racing skills were already legendary before he began working his magic on Renault Dauphine models in the late 1950s. His name was subsequently used on a succession of sporting Renaults until 1975.

The modern day Gordini is more about style rather than extra zip. There have been no mechanical tweaks to wring extra performance from the 1.6 litre petrol engine that's in the Renaultsport Twingo – which is something of a shame.

Instead, Renault offers a quality luxury package, with the distinctive Gordini livery of Malta blue paint and twin white stripes very much to the fore. Buyers can choose black instead, but the overwhelming majority choose blue – and apparently all but one per cent keep the trademark twin stripes too.

Spoiler

You also get side skirts, a rear spoiler and some very eye-catching – but all too kerfuffle – alloy wheels with the Gordini.

Inside, there's a classy-looking interior with leather seats as standard, leather-trimmed door panels and a stylish blue and grey steering wheel with twin white 'dead-ahead' markers.

The dashboard is finished in piano black and the centrally-located main instrument pod is both funky and easy to read.

You sit relatively high in the Twingo, so it doesn't offer the sportiest of driving positions. All round visibility is good though, and parking is particularly easy thanks to the compact dimensions of the car.

The Gordini lacks the Cup chassis of the harder-edged Renaultsport Twingos as the emphasis is more on comfort than performance. That said, it will hit 60mph in around eight and a half seconds courtesy of its 133hp 1.6 litre petrol engine. The Gordini is always entertaining and spirited to drive, provide you keep the revs high. Its steering is sharp and responsive and there's plenty of grip from the tyres.

The engine note is peppy, though it can be wearing on longer journeys. Those who do a lot of motorway cruising may bemoan the absence of a sixth gear.

Ride quality is firm but reasonable and the front seats are supportive. I also liked the way the back seats slide forwards and back – though this comes at the expense of boot space.

The Gordini is pitched against the Mini Cooper and initially looks the more expensive car. The Mini not only undercuts the French car by £350 but holds out the prospect of lower running costs.

But there are major differences in specification – and if you want Bluetooth mobile

No extra performance compared with the Renaultsport Twingos but the Gordini-badged cars benefit from sharp, stylish looks phone connectivity, leather seats, metallic paint and climate control air conditioning on the Mini you'll have to find another £2,000. They are standard on the Renault. There's also a near guarantee of exclusivity with only 200 Gordinis being imported into the UK. The regular Renaultsport Twingo models are probably better value – but if you really want to stand out from the crowd then the Gordini is the way to go.

Alternatively you can find similarly twin-striped versions of the Suzuki Swift Sport for under £13,000 but this is a model that's due for replacement soon. Then there's always the Fiat 500 Abarth, whose cute yet sporty looks are backed up by a sub-eight second 0-60mph time and a price tag of just over £14,000. There aren't too many vehicles of this type on the market – but this may change as the trend towards downsizing continues.

PETER CARROLL

Joy for BMW as its sales increase for fourth year

FOR the fourth year in succession, more UK customers than ever before have chosen a BMW Motorrad machine.

With a record 6,703 new bike registrations in 2010, BMW's award-winning range of motorcycles is leading the industry, with sales up 12.2 per cent on 2009.

Alongside growing sales in BMW's traditionally core areas of Adventure Sports and Touring motorcycles, the S 1000 RR supersports bike has brought an entirely new customer demographic into the BMW Motorrad brand.

The success of the S 1000 RR, both in showrooms and on the race track, has been matched by domestic and international awards and acclaim, including Motorcycle News' Machine of the Year and the International Masterbike titles.

Expanded

The range of BMW rider equipment has expanded and grown to provide clothing and accessories suitable for the entire spectrum of BMW Motorrad bikes.

BMW's strong showing in the respected annual Rider Power survey has reflected the high levels of customer satisfaction delivered by BMW Motorrad's motorcycles, clothing and dealer network.

Five of the top ten bikes - including the winning K 1300 S - are BMWs and BMW Motorrad won the overall Best Brand award in 2010, which combines satisfaction across the board, reliability and dealer performance.

In an overall motorcycle market that fell 15.9 per cent in 2010, BMW Motorrad was the only volume motorcycle manufacturer to show double-digit growth in the UK. The firm also boosted its market share.

Adrian Roderick, general manager of BMW Motorrad UK, said: "2010 was another fantastic year for BMW Motorrad. In a motorcycle market that is sadly continuing to decline we have increased our sales and share of the market."

Sections

"Not only have we continued to lead the sectors that are core to the BMW brand, such as Touring and Adventure Sport, but we have also attracted new customers to Motorrad with the introduction of pioneering products, such as the now iconic S 1000 RR."

"Looking forward, 2011 will be another exciting year for BMW Motorrad. On 19 March we will be launching four new models like the revolutionary six-cylinder K 1600 GT and K 1600 GTL. BMW Motorrad will continue to bring innovation and unparalleled technology to the motorcycle market in 2011, which we are confident will bring continued sales success."

BMW Motorrad was the only volume brand to show double digit growth last year

Lancer poised for an upmarket joust

The Juro is based on the regular 1.5 litre Mitsubishi Lancer but has more prestige features as standard MITSUBISHI has introduced a new special edition model based on the Lancer.

The new Lancer 1.5 Juro is based on the current Lancer 1.5 GS2 but Mitsubishi is including black leather upholstery and a Kenwood integrated satellite navigation system, which features a reversing camera, as standard.

The model also has Bluetooth, iPod connectivity, climate control air conditioning, electric windows and electric, heated wing mirrors as standard.

The sat nav system is a Garmin unit with controls that can be operated via buttons on the steering wheel.

Mitsubishi, whose UK base is in Cirencester,

Gloucestershire, hopes the petrol Lancer Juro will appeal to a wide range of customers with its high specification level and competitive pricing.

The Lancer 1.5 Juro is available in five colours and prices start at £14,749 on the road including VAT and metallic paint.

The Lancer body structure is built around Mitsubishi's next-generation Reinforced Impact Safety Evolution (RISE) design.

Protection

It disperses energy loads during side and rear impacts and controls distortion, enhancing occupant protection and also helps to protect the fuel system during a rear impact.

The Lancer's comprehensive safety package includes an advanced dual front airbag Supplementary Restraint System (SRS) with occupant sensors, standard front seat-mounted side-impact airbags and side curtain airbags, plus a driver's knee airbag. This vehicle has a five-star Euro NCAP safety rating.

With the improvements to technology and safety the insurance group rating for the Lancer 1.5 Juro is Group 14E.

The Lancer Juro comes with a three-year/unlimited mileage warranty together with a pan-European roadside assistance package.

Service intervals are 12 month/12,500 mile (whichever comes first) and Mitsubishi's competitive Service Plan (MSP) covers the first three scheduled services for £400.

Next Cooper S set to come in diesel form

COMING just months after the launch of the Countryman, Mini has announced that the Cooper SD will become the most powerful diesel model in the firm's line-up.

The new 2.0 litre/143hp will be available in all Mini body types - Hatch, Convertible, Clubman and Countryman - and will deliver more power, frugal fuel consumption and lower CO2 emissions.

Also launching in the UK in March is a new special edition Mini Clubman, the Hampton, and a new special edition Hatch, the Pimlico. A new Sports Pack option will add spice to both Hatch and Convertible ranges.

The Cooper S name first graced the classic Mini back in 1963 and during the ensuing 48 years it has consistently been feted as the ultimate performance Mini, having won the Monte Carlo rally three times and countless other races and rallies around the globe.

It would be almost inconceivable that such a heritage could ever see the valued 'S' tag attached to anything other than a finely-honed petrol engine.

However, such is the progress made by BMW Group in developing powerful, responsive and efficient diesel units that for the first time the Cooper S badge will grace a new diesel model - the Cooper SD. Not only will it be the most performance-oriented diesel Mini, the Cooper SD will also feature the largest displacement power unit ever to grace the engine compartment of a Mini model in the marque's 52 year history.

The two-litre four cylinder power unit follows the design philosophy of the familiar 1.6 litre engine but produces 143hp at 4,000 rpm -

The Cooper SD will come with the biggest engine ever fitted in a Mini almost 28 per cent more than the Cooper D and nearly 60 per cent above that of the One D.

Unsurprisingly its power, allied to the highest torque value of any Mini engine (even the engines within the John Cooper Works family), endows the Cooper SD with vivid performance: in the case of the Hatch, a top speed of 134mph and a 0-62mph acceleration time of 8.1 seconds.

Turbocharger

The new diesel engine features an all-aluminium crankcase to keep weight down while a special and very powerful turbocharger with variable intake geometry is controlled by the engine management system to deliver mighty thrust at all engine speeds.

However, this new engine does not sacrifice efficiency on the altar of performance.

All five Mini Cooper SD models are equipped with the full panoply of Minimalism technology to eke ever more miles from every precious litre of diesel. These features include brake energy generation, auto start/stop, a gearshift point display and electric power steering.

The result is a car that sips fuel at the rate of 65.7 mpg on the EU cycle and emits a mere 114 grams of CO2. This secures a zero VED rate and a company car benefit tax rate of 13 per cent including the three per cent diesel surcharge.

All Cooper SD models are equipped with a new super light six speed manual gearbox, as standard. A six-speed automatic transmission is available as an option and includes shift paddles on the steering wheel for auto drivers with a sporty inclination.

VOLKSWAGEN has unveiled a new 'super efficient vehicle' (SEV) capable of stunning economy and miserly carbon dioxide emissions.

The new VW XL1 returns 313mpg on the combined cycle and emits just 24g/km of CO2 to set a new benchmark for vehicle efficiency.

Unveiled at the Qatar Motor Show, the concept pioneers new lightweight construction techniques, an advanced plug-in hybrid drivetrain, and innovative 'packaging'.

The XL1 is powered by a compact 800cc TDI two-cylinder common rail diesel engine developing 48PS. It's linked to an electric motor producing 27 PS, resulting in a total of 75 PS - a modest output, yet more than enough given the low kerb weight (795 kg).

The TDI engine is linked to an electric motor and a seven-speed DSG gearbox with an automatic clutch mounted between each unit.

The electric motor can either work independently of the TDI engine or in tandem when accelerating.

In pure electric mode the XL1 can travel up to 35 km before the diesel engine cuts in. Accelerating from rest to 62 mph can be achieved in 11.9 seconds; the electronically limited top speed is 99 mph.

In both its styling and packaging the XL1 draws on lessons learned from the 1-Litre car (2002) and the L1 concept (2009). The XL1 has evolved to feature staggered seating with the driver and passenger next to each other in a body structure made from advanced new materials.

VW's 800cc diesel of the future will be capable of outstanding economy

Easy both on the eye and the pocket

FOLLOWING on from the success of the Takuya Special Edition Range introduced in mid-2010 for a limited period, Mazda is launching five 2011 'Takuya' models across the Mazda2, Mazda3 and Mazda6 line-ups with a total production volume of nearly 4,000 units.

The generously equipped Takuya models incorporate features normally only available with top-of-the-range derivatives. Also displaying extra visual appeal with attractive pricing, the Takuya quintet is on sale now, offering Mazda customers great added value.

Mark Cameron, sales director, Mazda UK, said: "The 2011 Mazda Takuya range offers buyers genuine exclusivity, evocative sports styling and enhanced equipment, while representing fantastic value for money."

"Previous special edition Mazda models have proved hugely popular, selling fast and boasting impressive residual values."

All Mazda Takuya models are also available with VAT fixed at the 2010 rate – this offer applies to the retail list price and excludes all factory fitted and dealer fitted options.

Priced from £11,940 on the road, the Mazda2 1.3-litre five-door Takuya is the entry point into the 2011 special edition range.

With a price tag just £110 more than the Tamura model, this Takuya boasts the addition of front fog lights, black sports trim, rear electric windows, automatic climate-control air-conditioning, a Parrot Bluetooth hands-free kit and a new rear bumper sports trim – to offer truly remarkable value.

Standard equipment also includes 16-inch alloy wheels, a sports styling kit (incorporating a rear spoiler and side skirts) and sports headlights. The interior benefits from side and curtain airbags, a trip computer, leather steering wheel and gear knob, steering wheel remote audio controls and four audio speakers. For 2011 the Mazda2 Takuya is available in a choice of five colours, including the new Burgundy Red Mica.

Powered by a 1.3-litre, 84PS engine, the Mazda2 Takuya is a lively performer that is also remarkably frugal. It accelerates to

Consumers requiring a larger but equally agile hatchback will find the 105ps, 1.6-litre Mazda3 Takuya an ideal car.

Costing £1,145 more than the TS model on which it is based, this Takuya boasts specification that includes 17-inch alloy wheels, sports styling kit, front fog and LED rear lights, plus automatic dusk-sensing lights and rain-sensing wipers.

Inside, there is automatic dual-zone climate control air conditioning, black sports interior trim, heated front sports seats, an integrated Bluetooth system, a six-disc CD changer and leather covered steering wheel and gear knob.

Priced from just £16,695 the Mazda3 Takuya represents excellent value for money and promises low running costs with a combined fuel economy figure of 43.5mpg and low-for-class 149g/km of CO<sub>2</sub> emissions.

Buyers with bigger families, will find Mazda6 Takuya special edition models available in three different guises: a 2.0-litre 155ps five-door (£20,495), 2.2D 163ps five-door (£21,675) and 2.2D 163ps Estate (£22,325).

For £1,050 more than the TS models, all three variants benefit from the fitment of 18-inch alloy wheels, a sports grille, front fog lights, privacy glass and dusk-sensing headlights.

The interior features an alloy pedal set, half-leather heated seats, auto-dimming rear view mirror, dual-zone automatic climate control air-conditioning, an integrated Bluetooth system and a six-disc CD changer.

A choice of four metallic, mica or pearlescent paint colours is offered free of charge.

There will be three different versions of the Mazda6 Takuya

Mark Foster flanked by head coach Luke Thomas and head teacher Robin Clark

Legend makes a splash on visit to Phoenix club

SWIMMING

POOL legend Mark Foster made a big splash when he visited Phoenix Swimming Club.

Cannock Phoenix were one of only two clubs across the country to win a visit from Foster in an Amateur Swimming Association competition held late last year.

Mark's impressive list of achievements includes six world records, six world short course gold medals, 11 European short course gold medals and two Commonwealth gold medals during an illustrious 23-year international career.

During his visit Foster met with the club's swimmers, teachers and coaches - providing ample opportunity for autographs and photo opportunities.

He also witnessed the club's learn to swim activities before conducting a technique masterclass with the club's development and performance squad swimmers and taking part in races with the club's senior swimmers.

Everyone that attended enjoyed the opportunity to meet, talk to and be coached by one of the country's most respected athletes.

Anybody interested in joining Cannock Phoenix Swimming Club should contact Karl Bourne on 01543 458188.

Club is on the hunt for extra maidens

CRICKET

CANNOCK Ladies Cricket Club are looking to recruit new members for the 2011 season.

Indoor training sessions run from 8-9pm at Rugeley Leisure Centre, Burnthill Lane and start next Thursday (February 17) until Thursday March 24.

Coaching sessions will be run by David Fleet, who has previously managed Staffordshire age group teams. All ages and abilities are very welcome.

Cannock play their senior cricket in the Women's Midlands League Division 3 North West, where 40-over matches are normally played on a Sunday afternoon. They also run an under-17 girls team in the Kidsgrove League, where 20-over games are played in midweek. Cannock hold the ECB Clubmark certificate, and all of their 18 coaches are CRB cleared and hold ECB CA insurance.

They are a 'Chance To Shine' club, and have been tasked with delivering coaching in local primary schools for the past three years.

They were awarded funding in 2010 by the ECB and the Staffordshire Environmental fund to enable a new four-bay practice facility to be built at their home ground in Church Lane, Hatherton, Staffs. WS11 1RR.

For further information, please contact Graham Machin on 07836 371 043, or via email to BandMI@aol.com

LICHFIELD DIAMONDS

Chelsea hits hat-trick in a gr-eight win

ALLSCOTT LFC 2 LICHFIELD DIAMONDS LFC 0

DIAMONDS faced a tough trip to second-placed Allscott and played out a goalless first half with the wind pushing the city side on to the back foot.

With the wind more of an advantage in the second half Diamonds looked more of a threat and Nicky Sykes looked to have given them the lead but her shot was hooked off the line.

The home side then took the lead with a shot that looped up and over the keeper. Diamonds pressed forward for the equaliser. Both Cat Harris and Shannon Edwards hit the post and Allscott put the game safe late on with a tremendous strike from just outside the box.

KNOWLE GIRLS U-16S 5 LICHFIELD DIAMONDS 0

A very disappointing result for Diamonds, especially coming after a bright first 20 minutes when they were camped in the home side's half.

COUNDOWN COURT GIRLS U-15S 1 LICHFIELD DIAMONDS 4

Diamonds inconsistent season continues with a fine away win at second place Coundown.

BURTON GIRLS 2 LICHFIELD DIAMONDS U-14S 0

With three or four players suffering with heavy colds, and with a strong wind playing havoc, the U-14s never looked likely to get into this game and so it proved with Burton controlling most of the match.

Both goals conceded by Diamonds were unfortunate, the first coming from a handball not picked up by the referee and the second coming after Player of the Match Jess Wilson had tipped an effort on to the post, only for it to rebound back and trickle over the line.

LICHFIELD DIAMONDS U-13S 10 BRERETON TOWN GIRLS 0

With strong wind making the conditions hard it never stopped Diamonds playing football.

Player of the Match Katie Hitchcock started the scoring. Danielle Cummings got the second with Steph Speck also getting a goal before half-time.

Cummings added to her goal in the second half, and Speck added two for her hat-trick. There were seven different scorers with Rosie Mason, Green and Thea Cummings also on the score sheet. Captain Jodie Whorton-Eales got her first goal of the season, then the goal of the game came from Danielle Harley.

LICHFIELD DIAMONDS U-12S 8 UTTOXETER GIRLS 0

After only 25 minutes Diamonds were 4-0 up. Goals came from captain Chelsea Czekerly (3) and pacy winger Jade Butler. The second half saw goals from Millie Fletcher (3) and Ellie Lewis as Diamonds moved up to third in the table.

BROWNHILLS COLTS U LICHFIELD DIAMONDS U-11S 10

The wind and bobby pitch made it difficult but Diamonds did their best to get to grips with and play some decent football.

Mae Murphy showed her all round ability with a hat-trick as did Elizabeth Palmer.

PARADISE LOUNGE FC

Supersub carries Lounge to victory

PARADISE LOUNGE 2 CANNOCK WOOD 1

A SECOND half double from supersub James Wilkinson sunk Cannock Wood and secured Paradise Lounge their first victory since October.

The Lounge went into the game on the back of four much-improved performances since the turn of the year and looked more likely to break the deadlock in a goalless first-half at Beacon Park.

Scottish full-back Mark Morris almost scored when he ghosted in to meet a cross at the far post, while Stuart Gaultlett's powerful shot forced Cannock Wood keeper Jimmy McElroy into a save.

But the visitors made a bright start to the second-half and took the lead when striker Stuart Barnett's wind-assisted effort flew into the top corner.

Wilkinson replaced banana-booted Gaultlett in attack and the 21-year-old made an immediate impact by scoring twice in the space of five minutes.

Despite Wilkinson's impressive finishing, he was beaten to the Man of the Match award by Jack Lowe.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

BURNWOOD DRAGONS REDS U-14S 1 NORTON CANES 5

IN blustery winds both teams struggled to play their best football. Norton opened the scoring through Jack Elcock but Dragons took advantage of a lofted ball into the box to pull them level.

In the second half Norton had the wind in their favour as Connor Horton volleyed home their second. Kemahl Reid made it three before Horton headed home his second.

Dragons never gave up but Ash Smith drilled home Norton's fifth.

ERDINGTON STAR WOODLANDS 1 BURNWOOD DRAGONS U-11S 5

Liam Millington gave Dragons a first half lead and they went on to progress to the cup semi final thanks to second half goals from Matty Cartwright (2), Liam Latham and Oliver Price. Flynn Jackson was Man of the Match.

BURNWOOD DRAGONS U-14S REDS 1 NORTON CANES 5

Burnwood needed to raise their game against higher league opponents to reach the cup quarter final.

Within minutes of the start Norton took the lead, but Dragons levelled through Callum Rose.

Playing against the wind in the second half, two early Norton goals left Burnwood with a mountain to climb. Shaun Keeley was Man of the Match.

BURNWOOD DRAGONS REDS U-11S 9 FOOTBALL FUTURES 0

This was a game in which the Reds controlled from start to finish with a fine all round team display.

Jordan Corrigan, Ellis Davies-Morton and Arron Beale all scored twice and there was one each for Bradley Price, George Wardle and Rhys McLeod. Man of the Match went to the whole team.

CANNOCK TOWN U-14S 5 CHASE TOWN 0

Leaders Cannock Town ran out as comfortable 5-0 winners with an all round good team performance.

Captain Niall Preece added two more goals and there was one each for Sam Hollingwood, Luke Radjenovic and a first of the season from Manager's Man of the Match Callum Fowler.

Parents' Man of the Match was Liam Dowell.

CHURCH FARM WHITES U-9S CASTLE VALE 0

Whites dominated against with Callum Smith, an own goal and Clark Haddrell on target, but it could have been more. Desperate defending and good goalkeeping kept the score down but the win wasn't enough to take Whites into the cup final. Men of the Match were Max Finch and Josh McChale.

ERDINGTON STARS 2 CHURCH FARM BLUES U-9S 3

Blues took the game to the top of the table Vale from the whistle. Goals from Luke Poxon, Ethan Rogers and Luke Cope secured the win in the dying minutes. Man of the Match was Alex Wright.

CANNOCK TOWN U-11S JUNIORS 5 BEACON STARS 2

In a great game from both sides, Cannock's first goal came from Luke Clews. Jordan Armstrong scored 2-0 at half-time.

Man of the Match Kyle Caven added two more in the second half, but after Beacon pulled another back, Armstrong made it five.

CANNOCK TOWN U-9S 2 SUTTON TOWN REDS 4

Carter Lycett gave Cannock the lead and they went in at half-time a goal up thanks to a Ryan Cocks penalty save.

A dubious goal off the crossbar drew Sutton level in the second half and the visitors took the lead via a deflection. Despite Lycett's second, Sutton went on to take the game.

HAWKINS Sports came from one down to beat bottom team Brereton Town 3-2 and got five points clear of them in their fight against relegation from the Premier League. Lee Myatt scored one and Jake Perry bagged two, one from the spot.

Leaders Beacon Way were held to a 4-4 draw with mid-table Alma, while Pelsall Bush climb to fourth by beating Yates Sports 4-2.

Holders Belt Road are out of the Premier League Cup at the quarter final stage, losing 2-0 to Winding Wheel. Warren Inskip and Lee Taylor scored.

AFC Heath Hayes knocked out the Dog FC on penalties in the Division One quarter-finals. After two hours of football the game finished 3-3. Heath Hayes then scored all their penalties to win 4-1.

Robin Hood knocked out Blowers 3-2. First half goals by Ben Pugh, Mark Jones and Graham Roberts put Robin Hood in control but Blowers pulled two back to make them sweat. St Matthews beat Red, White & Blue 2-0.

Legion's good run continued as they thumped Heath Hayes Cons 3-1 in Division Two. Leaders Yew Tree beat Bloxwich Celtic 5-1, while second placed Chase Spartans beat Bar Sport 5-0.

Four Rugeley goals made it 38 from four games as Rangers notched another win. On target were Jack Chatting and Tom Downes with a brace from Chris Alderson. New boy Connor Stewart made a solid debut.

SPORTING WALSA 0 WYRLAY TIGERS U-10S 1

Wyrlay took the points in this close encounter in which a fierce wind made controlling flowing football very difficult. The defining moment came in the first half as Wyrlay won a free kick just outside the edge of the box and Sam Foreman stepped up to beat the keeper on his near post. Elliot Crook was Man of the Match.

WYRLAY TIGERS U-10S 0 SHIRE OAK PANTHERS 1

There wasn't much between these two teams as a confident and hard working Shire Oak team took the spoils.

Wyrlay Man of the Match Harry Simkin made a couple of good stops and Josh Smith was unlucky not to get on the score sheet, but Shire Oak secured the points with a well taken goal five minutes from time.

HAWKINS SPORTS 1 CHASE ATHLETIC U-11S JUNIORS 6

Hawkins took the lead but Chase powered through to the cup semi-final. Tanaka Katsukunya and Man of the Match Matty Dyke both scored twice with Ben Crutchley and Ben Wood also on target.

CANNOCK HOCKEY

CANNOCK 4TH XI 3 HARBORNE 4THS 3
BY half time the Chase Park side were two goals down.

But when the chips are down they gel as a team, dig deep and make the opposition fight for every ball.

Against the run of play the Harborne playmaker orchestrated an attacking move which led to a penalty flick and a third goal.

It was at this point that Cannock pegged Harborne back into their own half. Centre forward Matt Sanders was unleashed and he opened his account with a pinpoint flick from a short corner.

CANNOCK 5TH XI 2 SHREWSBURY 4THS 0

Cannock eased in to a 1-0 lead in the first 10 minutes thanks to Lawrence Perry and found themselves 2-0 ahead after a move finished off by Josh Ward.

The second half proved a different game after a few sendings off in the Cannock ranks, leaving the final five minutes to be a frantic scrap with seven Cannock players against the 11 men of Shrewsbury.

CANNOCK 6TH XI 2 BRIDGNORTH 5TH XI 2

With 11 players fit it was going to be a tough afternoon against a side sitting second in the division and after two minutes it got harder with Bridgnorth's first goal.

It wasn't all one way traffic but Cannock struggled to apply pressure and it was only time before Bridgnorth added a second.

Cannock came out for the second half with grit and a new found determination. From a free hit drilled into the 'D' and Jonny Machin deflected it in.

With five minutes to go, Louie Morris drove into the 'D' and drilled the ball into the goal at the near post.

CANNOCK BADGERS 'B' 0 NORTH STAFFORD BADGERS 0

A young and inexperienced Cannock Badgers B XI travelled to Newcastle-Under-Lyme on a windy and at times very wet afternoon to earn another impressive draw against stronger opposition.

In a game played in a friendly but competitive spirit Cannock deserved their draw and remain unbeaten in their last three games.

Coach John Ions praised the team for their performance and thanked the parents for their support and assistance with the transportation.

CANNOCK 'VETS' XI 2 KETTERING 'VETS' 1

deny the Over 40s of their full squad.

The depleted went one up from a short corner routine.

The ball did end up in the Cannock net twice but both attempts were cancelled out by the umpires.

Early in the half Kettering scored from a short corner that clipped the toe of charging keeper Steve Parker and past the outstretched stick of Nick Colclough.

From this point play was pretty even. Tempers were raised, decisions questioned, cards waved and players warned. Tackles became clumsy and as the game became scrappy, Dave Mayer scored Cannock's winner.

CANNOCK 4TH XI 7 EDGBASTON 5TH XI 2

Cannock 4ths set about taking all three points from Edgbaston on this re-arranged Sunday fixture.

Within five minutes Wigg gave Cannock the lead from a short corner. This was shortly followed by a second corner converted by Chris Darnley.

Andy Balmer slotted home Cannock's third and Raff Moscatello snatched a fourth Cannock goal before Edgbaston scrambled one back.

Darnley's second came via a one-on-one with the keeper. A further lapse led to Edgbaston gaining and converting a penalty corner, but Darnley eventually got his hat-trick. Latest 4ths recruitment George Myatt struck a bobbling ball home for the final goal.

CANNOCK LADIES 2ND XI 3 DUDLEY LADIES 1ST XI 0

After a frustrating first half there was no score but a determined and patient Cannock side scored via Ashley Moncada after the break.

Captain Sarah Martin scored from a short corner and then Moncada scored again. Charlie Robinson had a penalty flick saved before the end.

CANNOCK LADIES 3RD XI 2 STONE LADIES 1ST XI 4

Leaders Stone hit four goals past Cannock for the second time.

Sophie Tibbetts smashed one home a few minutes after going behind, but Stone went 4-1 up before a clever little finish from Jane Craddock just before the end.

CANNOCK LADIES 5TH XI 1 ERDINGTON LADIES 1ST XI 3

Cannock took the lead thanks to a great Amy Neal strike. Despite Cannock dominating the opening half, the visitors turned the game on its head in the second half.

CANNOCK 'VIXENS' XI 1 LICHFIELD 'VIXENS' XI 1

Cannock entertained Lichfield in a tight encounter on a windy night down. Lichfield who dominated the first half and five minutes after the interval, took the lead.

Cannock dominated the final 25 minutes and eventually broke through with a well worked goal hammered in by Hannah Talbot from six yards out.

CANNOCK LADIES 2ND XI 5 BIRMINGHAM LADIES 4TH XI 1

Cannock Ladies 2nds played a re-arranged home game against Birmingham University 4ths on Sunday.

Cannock scored within the first minute from Emma Pardo, then the second came just before half-time with some silky skills from captain Sarah Martin who set up Louise Humphrey.

The second half saw further goals from Sarah Martin, Lucy Hammond and Julia Mansell.

MARKET DRAYTON 13 RUGELEY 19

IN-FORM Rugeley travelled to face a well drilled Market Drayton side on Saturday.

In recent seasons Rugeley have never traveled well to Market Drayton and have always been easily beaten by them.

The game started much to be expected with Market Drayton proving very potent in attack and taking an early lead with a try from a rolling maul.

After conceding the try Rugeley's attitude then changed and they immediately went on a sustained attack with brilliant running from Simon Flint, Kenneth Archer and Kevin Birt.

Rugeley then gained quick ball from the scrum seeing Kenneth Archer combine with Giuseppe Sirianni which went straight down the line to Ade Yates who rounded one and fell just short of the try line - only to see Sirianni follow up and score in the corner.

The rest of the half was all Rugeley but they just had to settle for two converted penalties from Adam Grocott.

As they led 11-8.

The second half started with the same pattern of the first and after some good forwards work and quick hands, Ade Yates went in unopposed in the corner.

A further penalty through the reliable boot of Grocott made it 19-8.

Rugeley then had a few chances to push for the bonus point but were to be denied through a few handling errors although the moves building up to these were very impressive.

Market Drayton began come back in to the game through some very powerful running from their front row. They built up phase after phase with runners always there. For the third week running though Rugeley's defence made the opposition go backwards which was fantastic to see.

Eventually with this attack Market Drayton found a hole and managed to score a try to reduce the deficit to 19-13.

Rugeley had John Cliffe put in the bin with 10 minutes to go but they just cleared their lines and played down the clock until the final whistle went.

Rugeley 3rds lost their merit league fixture to Linley 12-10 with tries from Daniel Leone and Andrew Morecock.

This weekend sees Rugeley 1sts at Bloxwich, the 2nds host Burnwood with the third team fixture to be confirmed.

Man of the Match was Cieron Griffin.

LICHFIELD 26 DUDLEY 52

Leaders Dudley chose to play against the elements at Cooke Fields so Lichfield kicked off with a strong wind advantage.

The opportunity to put points on the board came in the third minute and Josh Massey duly obliged with a well taken penalty to put Lichfield 3-0 ahead.

RUGBY

Rich Burton stretched the lead with a powerful run.

From a sweeping move Josh Massey cut a great line to take a sweet pass from Rich Burton and cross for a try near the posts which he also converted to give the Myrtle Greens a healthy 15-0 lead.

Dudley, however, are not unbeaten for no reason and in a 15 minute spell before half time came storming back with two tries.

Lichfield answered this comeback with some concerted pressure of their own and Josh Massey struck 2 further penalties in the 35th and 38th minute to give them a half time lead of 21-10.

Lichfield turned around to face a strengthening breeze and a side determined not to give away their unbeaten record without a fight.

Dudley struck first with a penalty to inch closer at 21-13 and then a try in the 51st minute to make it 21-18.

Lichfield came roaring back and after a string of penalties Dudley lost their prop to the bin for 10 minutes then Tom Paulson powered over to put the home side 26-18.

The score remained until the 70th minute and Dudley were undoubtedly wobbling. However in the final 10 minutes, plus a generous amount of injury time saw them run in three tries and add two penalties for a deserved but flattering 32-26 victory.

The mood in the dressing room afterwards was disappointed but not downbeat and the improvement Lichfield has made this season was apparent and well received by the home supporters.

This week Lichfield travel to Old Laurentians

Back to earth after lapse in concentration

CHASETOWN 0 BUXTON 1

A JADED-looking Chasetown side came back down to earth after their FA Trophy exploits with a 1-0 home defeat to Buxton on Tuesday night.

Chances were few and far between in a physical encounter, but the Bucks grabbed the only goal shortly after the break. Chasetown did start well after Saturday's heroics and Ramone Stephens crossed

Jimmy Turner tried a low long range shot on 24 minutes, while Buxton lost Martin Pemberton who was stretchered off with a leg injury on 35 minutes.

Buxton were quickest out of the blocks after the break with Neil Stevens' header cleared for a corner, and they were soon ahead. The Scholars paid for a moment of hesitation when Chris Slater went down after a clash in midfield and Kieran Lugsden rounded Ryan Price to open the scoring.

Chasetown now turn their attention to Saturday's home clash with Hucknall Town, kick off 3pm) a match which will see the club presented with its £10,000 Facilities Makeover Competition prize.

Chasetown's FA Trophy run goes on SCHOLARS INTO QUARTER FINAL

EASTLEIGH 1 CHASETOWN 3, FA CARLSBERG TROPHY 3RD ROUND

CHASETOWN'S sensational FA Carlsberg Trophy run took another dramatic step with a 3-1 victory at Eastleigh on Saturday.

The Scholars are the lowest ranked side left in the competition and they now face a quarter final tie at home to former League side Mansfield Town on February 26.

More than 250 devoted Scholars fans who made the journey south went home overjoyed after a wonderful attacking display. Eastleigh forced a corner from the very first attack of the game and both Jimmy Turner and skipper Richard Teesdale had to work hard over the opening stages.

CHASETOWN FC

Chasetown's first chance came in the 14th minute but Ben Jevons headed Turner's ball wide, but the Scholars were working hard against the men from the Blue Square South.

Ryan Price denied Ryan Slabber on two occasions as the Spitfires kept up the pressure, but against the odds the visitors took the lead on 31 minutes. Richard Davies burst clear of a brace of Spitfires defenders and carefully took the ball round keeper Jason Matthews and slotted across the face of goal into the far corner.

Eastleigh's fightback was immediate, Tony Taggart hit the woodwork twice, while Gary Hay threatened a second for the Scholars but was beaten by the offside flag.

Slabber went closest of all for the Spitfires in the 44th minute but his shot squeaked an inch wide.

Three minutes into the second half, Eastleigh were level raising the roof at the Silverlake Stadium. Shaun McAuley crossed from the right allowing Slabber to head the ball into the roof of the net.

McAuley could have added a second moments later but Price decided to push the shot wide.

On the hour the Scholars retook the lead, Danny Smith stabbing the ball past Matthews after a scramble.

Out of nowhere on 73 minutes Chasetown added a third. Dave Egan burst out down the right and unleashed a peach of a cross to the wide open Ben Jevons who fired past Matthews.

Things went from bad to worse for the Spitfires three minutes later when substitute Luke Byles was sent off for a heavy challenge on Davies.

Pitmen comfortably move into fifth place

HEDNESFORD TOWN 2 HEMEL HEMPSTEAD 0

A GOAL in each half secured a comfortable victory for Hednesford Town on a stormy afternoon at Keys Park.

Visitors Hemel Hempstead failed to register a single shot on goal, despite starting the brighter of the two sides.

The Pitmen drew first blood on 14 minutes as Mark Osborn misjudged a Jay Denny free kick and the goalkeeper felled the advancing Marvin Robinson to concede a penalty. Kyle Paterson went for power and smashed the spot kick into the net to send Rob Smith's side on their way.

HEDNESFORD TOWN

Darren Campion volleyed wide two minutes later and Cheyenne Dunkley picked up a yellow card for deliberate handball as the Hednesford defender slapped the ball over the line on 22 minutes.

Rob Smith drafted in new signing Liam Blakeman, on loan from Southport, to cover the hole left by suspension and injury to Chris Clements and Danny Quinn respectively. The debutant looked comfortable on the ball during the first half and showed his class when he dropped his shoulder on the edge of the box and curled a shot which looked to be heading for the far corner only to see Fiston Manuella stoop to head the ball into the ground and over his own crossbar.

The home side could have been two goals ahead by half time as Robinson headed a Liam Francis cross the wrong side of the post.

Hednesford saw out the game with ease as Kyle Paterson continued to boss the game from his withdrawn role behind Robinson. Paterson could have topped his Man of the Match performance off with a goal but Osborn was equal to his long range free kick on 56 minutes.

The equally impressive Campion came within a foot of scoring a third goal as his left-footed free-kick fizzed wide of the upright in stoppage time.

An impressive run of five wins in six league games has pushed the Pitmen into fifth spot in the table.

Sandwiched between clashes with Cambridge on Saturday (February 12) and Chesham on February 19 is a Staffordshire Senior Cup meeting with rivals Stafford Rangers on Tuesday, February 15 at Marston Road.

Paterson sets up Boss not getting passage to semis carried away yet

HEDNESFORD TOWN 4 STOURBRIDGE 2 – RED INSURE CUP QUARTER FINAL

Hednesford Town reached the semi-finals of the Red Insure Cup for the second season in succession with a rousing late comeback as substitute Kyle Paterson scored one and set up another to turn the game on its head.

Stourbridge played the better football throughout the first half but found themselves a goal down when Nick Wellecome shimmied and struck a well-placed shot into the far corner on 39 minutes.

The Stourbridge front two of Ryan Rowe and Drew Canavan combined well on 56 minutes as the latter sidestepped a desperate Liam Francis challenge and rifled the ball beyond Dan Crane.

Stourbridge were buoyed by the equaliser and took the lead on 66 minutes through Sam Rock. Paterson was introduced to the fray on sixty-nine minutes and during the final quarter of an hour and the ex-LA Galaxy striker smashed in the equaliser on 83 minutes.

Rowe forced an unorthodox parry by Crane for the away side before Paterson reached the bye-line with four minutes to go and set-up Marvin Robinson to force the ball over the line.

A rampant Pitmen even had chance to miss a penalty through Chris Clements before Jay Denny crossed for Robinson to nod in a fourth in stoppage time.

HEDNESFORD boss Rob Smith refused to get carried away with his team's fifth win in six Zamaretto Premier Division matches.

The Pitmen have risen into the play-off places with a solid run of results since the turn of the year but Smith knows there is still a long way to go before any promotion plans can be formulated.

"We put in a solid professional performance; nothing more, nothing less," said Smith.

The boss would only look beyond the next three league games which could make or break Hednesford's play-off hopes as they face three sides in the top seven alongside the Staffs Cup derby at Stafford Rangers next Tuesday night. "If we can come out well at the end of this run of games then we can really start to look forward," he added.

Two signings which look to have strengthened the Keys Park squad have been the capture of ex-Wolves wing back Alex Melbourne and the loan signing of Southport midfielder Liam Blakeman. Smith is happy with the additions but also stressed that there is real quality in his squad already.

Fans and players celebrate as the Scholars cup run goes on

'Double' followed by cup win in close game

STUDLEY 2 HEATH HAYES 3

HAYES survived a late onslaught to record the double over their hosts. Both sides must take credit for producing a fast open game of football on a muddy wind swept pitch.

Studley, with the advantage of the strong wind, had the better of the early play but Hayes opened the scoring on 29 minutes when Ben Haseley broke through to score.

Jack Edwards fired home after Paul Dowsett had struck the bar to equalise then Dave Waple's overhead kick cannoned off the Studley bar.

The hosts were reduced to 10 men when Jamie Bailey was sent off for stamping on Ben Maddox and Hayes took the lead on 55 minutes as Dave Waple squeezed the ball home.

Hayes increased their lead with the best goal of the game, Waple firing home from Alan Haycock's cross.

HEATH HAYES 3 WYRLEY JUNIORS 0 – JW HUNT CUP RD 2

WELL-organised Wyrley made Heath Hayes fight all the way in this JW Hunt clash before running out of steam in the last 15 minutes.

Both defences were on top during a goalless first half. Phil Bowater came closest for the visitors with a rasping drive that was only inches wide while Chris Deakin and Alan Haycock had chances for Heath Hayes.

The home side always looked the most likely to score and the break through came on 78 minutes. Deakin latched onto a long clearance and advanced on goal. His well placed effort was splendidly blocked by Wyrley keeper Callum Humphries but Joe McNulty made up a tremendous amount of ground to fire home the rebound.

Alan Haycock notched the second with a well placed effort into the corner of the net from 15 yards and then Karl Wallis finished things off with a fine solo effort curling the ball round the keeper from 18 yards. Wyrley can take pride in a gritty performance with the final score not really reflecting the closeness of the game.
